Mr. Otto Engelke points out that the 21st of his letter (Clifford Deane Taylor, 1910, 1914) should have read "the last of the surviving radicals". Not as printed.

Mr. Engelke's letter has convinced that it would require 881 years of working for any AA Unit Worker to earn as much money as Mohamed Ali earned in twenty three minutes in Cairo.

Building Institution Kim Förster, 2024-02-21 Building Institution chronicles the expansion of architecture as a profession and discipline in the postmodern era Kim Förster traces the compelling history of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies which was active in New York from 1967 to 1985 Drawing on extensive archival research and oral histories he constructs a collective biography that details the Institute s diverse roles and the dynamic interplay between research and design education culture and publishing By exploring the transformation of cultural production into a practice as well as the culturalization and global postmodernization of architecture the volume contributes significantly to the institutional history of architecture Hans Hollein and Postmodernism Eva Branscome, 2017-12-14 Set within the broader context of post war Austria and the re education initiatives set up by the Allied forces particularly the US this book investigates the art and architecture scene in Vienna to ask how this can inform our broader understanding of architectural Postmodernism The book focuses on the outputs of the Austrian artist and architect Hans Hollein and on his appropriation as a Postmodernist figure In Vienna the circles of radical art and architecture were not distinct and Hollein s claim that Everything is Architecture was symptomatic of this intermixing of creative practices Austria s proximity to the so called Iron Curtain and its post war history of four power occupation gave a heightened sense of menace that emerged strongly in Viennese art in the Cold War era Seen as a collective entity Hans Hollein s works across architecture art writing exhibition design and publishing clearly require a more diverse complex and culturally nuanced account of architectural Postmodernism than that offered by critics at the time

Across the five chapters Hollein s outputs are viewed not as individual projects but as symptomatic of Austria s attempts to come to terms with its Nazi past and to establish a post war identity
