Closing Circlestrapped In The Everlasting Mormon Moment:

Closing Circles Ronald Scott, 2012 New York journalist Jedediah Pratt Russell is the victim of an inexplicable divorce A loving father a dutiful bread winner a sensitive lover he thought he d given Sarah everything Jed finally abides Sarah s insistence on psychiatric help hoping it will mend whatever s broken between them Instead his experience with Dr Irving Quack Quack Rosenbaum prompts Jed to seriously pursue the autobiographical novel that s been gnawing at him for years and through it to confront all the simmering issues that plague his life his bond with his father in law Old ROT a former OSS operative suffering from a mysterious disease his record setting missionary work and love hate relationship with Church doctrine a secret tryst with an old flame right up to her marriage to Jed s distant cousin his fascination with marriage and polygamy both in his ancestral line and the present With the confidence of Rebe the way way too young assistant to Quack Quack Jed finds himself spinning toward the Mormon heritage he d left behind decades ago and into the heart of Utah where the many open circles in Jed s life converge in startling ways Unabashed heartfelt and brutally open Closing Circles is Jed s exploration of obsessions fantasies family history and Mormonism an exploration that will make him reconsider everything he s ever believed about marriage divorce faith and himself

The Mending R. B. Scott, 2019-02-27 The past collides with the present in The Mending as the iconoclastic Benjamin Adams Pratt prepares for a milestone school reunion that inadvertently becomes a poignant and rollicking homecoming for a prodigal son who forsook the Mormon Zion for Manhattan Snapshots from his past emerge to form a refreshingly nuanced and complex portrait of an achingly self conscious man of remarkable devotion and awkward loyalty In free flowing narratives resonant of John Irving s A Prayer for Owen Meany Scott merges riotously humorous storytelling with malingered regrets about half formed relationships and missed opportunities He vividly reconstructs Ben s transformation from an astonishingly independent and footloose child in Salt Lake City into a sophisticated New Yorker by turns seduced bemused and repulsed by the privileges of class and pretentious erudition while remaining harshly and haughtily dismissive of the culture and people he abandoned His accidental journey of self discovery traverses the borderlands of inheritance religion ethnicity and humanity
