Core Of Conviction My Story:

This Is Our Message Emily Suzanne Johnson, 2019-01-04 Over the past 50 years the architects of the religious right have become household names Jerry Falwell Pat Robertson James Dobson They have used their massively influential platforms to build the profiles of evangelical politicians like Mike Huckabee Rick Perry and Ted Cruz Now a new generation of leaders like Jerry Falwell Jr and Robert Jeffress enjoys unprecedented access to the Trump White House What all these leaders share besides their faith is their gender Men dominate the standard narrative of the rise of the religious right Yet during the 1970s and 1980s nationally prominent evangelical women played essential roles in shaping the priorities of the movement and mobilizing its supporters In particular they helped to formulate articulate and defend the traditionalist politics of gender and family that in turn made it easy to downplay the importance of their leadership roles In This Is Our Message Emily Johnson begins by examining the lives and work of four well known women evangelical marriage advice author Marabel Morgan singer and anti gay rights activist Anita Bryant author and political lobbyist Beverly LaHaye and televangelist Tammy Faye Bakker The book explores their impact on the rise of the New Christian Right and on the development of the evangelical subculture which is a key channel for injecting conservative political ideas into purportedly apolitical spaces Johnson then highlights the ongoing significance of this history through an analysis of Sarah Palin's vice presidential candidacy in 2008 and Michele Bachmann's presidential bid in 2012 These campaigns were made possible by the legacies of an earlier generation of conservative evangelical women who continue to impact our national conversations about gender family and sex

Campaigns and Elections American Style James A Thurber,2018-04-19 Dramatic changes in political institutions and behavior over the past three decades have underscored the dynamic nature of American politics confronting political scientists with a new and pressing intellectual agenda The pioneering work of early postwar scholars while laying a firm empirical foundation for contemporary scholarship failed to consider how American politics might change or recognize the forces that would make fundamental change inevitable In reassessing the static interpretations fostered by these classic studies political scientists are now examining the underlying dynamics that generate transformational change Transforming American Politics is a series that brings together texts addressing four closely related aspects of change A first concern is documenting and explaining recent changes in American politics in institutions processes behavior and policymaking A second is reinterpreting classic studies and theories to provide a more accurate perspective on postwar politics The series looks at historical change to identify recurring patterns of political transformation within and across the distinctive eras of

American politics Last and perhaps most important the series presents new theories and interpretations that explain the dynamic processes at work and thus clarify the direction of contemporary politics All of the books focus on the central theme of transformation transformation in both the conduct of American politics and in the way we study and understand its many aspects

My Story Larry Giles, 2022-01-15 This book is to the world to show the power of God how God can change one life if he or she chooses to change You see God showed me love that I never had I have so much love in my heart and that love God gave me has caused me to love something I never had I have so much love in my heart today in this dying world This world needs to learn how to have the love of God in them and this will be a better world than what it is Love is the key to life but so many people have been hurt in their life and they do not know how to love because most people never knew love I was never told as a child about love no one in my family said to me We love you Larry I say now that love covers everything to love others you must be set free from the things of the past but that is a process Not only am I in this process many other people are in a process too but God has us in his hands so never give up on God I know I have not given up on God and the Lord Jesus Christ
