Ingredients of Change Mary C. Neuburger, 2022-04-15 Ingredients of Change explores modern Bulgaria s foodways from the Ottoman era to the present outlining how Bulgarians domesticated and adapted diverse local regional and global foods and techniques and how the nation s culinary topography has been continually reshaped by the imperial legacies of the Ottomans Habsburgs Russians and Soviets as well as by the ingenuity of its own people Changes in Bulgarian cooking and cuisine Mary C Neuburger shows were driven less by nationalism than by the circulation of powerful food narratives scientific religious and ethical along with peoples goods technologies and politics Ingredients of Change tells this complex story through thematic chapters focused on bread meat milk and yogurt wine and the foundational vegetables of Bulgarian cuisine tomatoes and peppers Neuburger traces the ways in which these ingredients were introduced and transformed in the Bulgarian diet over time often in the context of Bulgaria s tumultuous political history She shows how the country s modern dietary and culinary transformations accelerated under a communist dictatorship that had the resources and will to fundamentally reshape what and how people ate and drank Culinary Nationalism in Asia Michelle T. King, 2019-07-11

With culinary nationalism defined as a process in flux as opposed to the limited concept of national cuisine the contributors of this book call for explicit critical comparisons of cases of culinary nationalism among Asian regions with the intention of recognizing patterns of modern culinary development As a result the formation of modern cuisine is revealed to be a process that takes place around the world in different forms and periods and not exclusive to current Eurocentric models Key themes include the historical legacies of imperialism colonialism nationalism the Cold War and global capitalism in Asian cuisines internal culinary boundaries between genders ethnicities social classes religious groups and perceived traditions modernities and global contexts of Asian cuisines as both nationalist and internationalist enterprises and Asia itself as a vibrant culinary imaginary The book which includes a foreword from Krishnendu Ray and an afterword from James L Watson sets out a fresh agenda for thinking about future food studies scholarship Identity at Work Eric Olmedo, 2015-07-16 This book investigates the interface of ethnicity with occupation empirically observed in luxury international hotels in Kuala Lumpur Malaysia It employs the two main disciplines of anthropology and sociology in order to understand the root causes and meaning of ethnicity at work within the hospitality industry sector More specifically it observes social change in a multi ethnic and non secular society through an ethnographic study located in a micro organisation the Grand Hotel At the individual level this research shows how identity shifts and transformation can be mediated through the consumption and manipulation of food at the workplace In addition it combines an ambitious theoretical discussion on the concept of ethnicity together with empirical data that highlights how ethnicity is lived on an everyday basis at a workplace manifesting the dynamics of cultural religious and ethnic diversity The book presents the quantitative and qualitative findings of two complementary surveys and pursues an interdisciplinary approach as it integrates methodologies from the sociology of organisations with classic fieldwork methods borrowed from ethnology while combining French and Anglo Saxon schools of thoughts on questions of identity and ethnicity The results of the cultural contact occurring in a westernised pocket of the global labour market in which social practices derive from the headquarters located in a society where ethnicity is self ascribed with Malaysian social actors to whom ethnicity is assigned will be of particular interest for social scientists and general readers alike

Texts adopted Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of Europe,2006-11-08 Food Between the Country and the City Nuno Domingos,José Manuel Sobral,Harry G. West,2014-03-27 At a time when the relationship between the country and the city is in flux worldwide the value and meanings of food associated with both places continue to be debated Building upon the foundation of Raymond Williams classic work The Country and the City this volume examines how conceptions of the country and the city invoked in relation to food not only reflect their changing relationship but have also been used to alter the very dynamics through which countryside and cities and the food grown and eaten within them are produced and sustained Leading scholars in the study of food offer ethnographic studies of peasant homesteads family farms community gardens state food industries transnational supermarkets planning offices tourist boards and government ministries in locales across the globe This fascinating collection provides vital new insight into the contested dynamics of food and will be key reading for upper level students and scholars of food studies anthropology history and geography
