Aesthetics of Interaction in Digital Art Katja Kwastek, 2015-08-21 An art historical perspective on interactive media art that provides theoretical and methodological tools for understanding and analyzing digital art Since the 1960s artworks that involve the participation of the spectator have received extensive scholarly attention Yet interactive artworks using digital media still present a challenge for academic art history In this book Katja Kwastek argues that the particular aesthetic experience enabled by these new media works can open up new perspectives for our understanding of art and media alike Kwastek herself an art historian offers a set of theoretical and methodological tools that are suitable for understanding and analyzing not only new media art but also other contemporary art forms Addressing both the theoretician and the practitioner Kwastek provides an introduction to the history and the terminology of interactive art a theory of the aesthetics of interaction and exemplary case studies of interactive media art Kwastek lays the historical and theoretical groundwork and then develops an aesthetics of interaction discussing such aspects as real space and data space temporal structures instrumental and phenomenal perspectives and the relationship between materiality and interpretability Finally she applies her theory to specific works of interactive media art including narratives in virtual and real space interactive installations and performance with case studies of works by Olia Lialina Susanne Berkenheger Stefan Schemat Teri Rueb Lynn Hershman Agnes Heged s Tmema David Rokeby Sonia Cillari and Blast Theory Beyond the Happening Catherine

Spencer, 2020-06-01 Beyond the Happening uncovers the heterogeneous uniquely interdisciplinary performance based works that emerged in the aftermath of the early Happenings By the mid 1960s Happenings were widely declared outmoded or even dead but this book reveals how many practitioners continued to work with the form during the late 1960s and 1970s developing it into a vehicle for studying interpersonal communication that simultaneously deployed and questioned contemporary sociology and psychology Focussing on the artists Allan Kaprow Marta Minuj n Carolee Schneemann and Lea Lublin it charts how they revised and retooled the premises of the Happening within a wider network of dynamic international activity The resulting performances directly intervened in the wider discourse of communication studies as it manifested in the politics of countercultural dropout soft power and cultural diplomacy alternative pedagogies sociological art and feminist consciousness raising Mark Dion Ruth Erickson, 2017-01-01 A comprehensive survey of American artist Mark Dion examining three decades of his critically engaged practice interrogating our relationship with nature The first book in two decades to consider the entire oeuvre of Mark Dion b 1961 this volume examines thirty years of the American artist s pioneering inquiries into how we collect interpret and display nature Part of a generation of artists expanding institutional critique in the 1990s Dion adopted the methods of the archaeologist or the natural history museum juxtaposing natural objects taxidermy books and more to reorganize the natural and the manmade in poetic witty ways These sculptures installations and interventions offer novel approaches to questioning institutional power which he sees as connected to the control and representation of nature Generously illustrated this publication introduces new insights and features more than seventy five artworks Essays address topics ranging from Dion s ecological activism to his loving critique of museums A diverse group of contributors explores his work as a teacher his public artworks such as Neukom Vivarium in Seattle and his intricate curiosity cabinets installed throughout the world They reveal how Dion s practice and formal investigations which are rooted in history connect to contemporary questions of disciplinary boundaries and the acquisition of knowledge in the age of the Anthropocene

Brave New Avant Garde Marc James Léger,2012-02-16 Brave New Avant Garde is a collection of essays that ask the questions what is an adequate model of contemporary avant garde practice and what are its theoretical premises With this it asks the related question echoing Alain Badiou must the avant garde hypothesis be abandoned Brave New Avant Garde stands in opposition to postmodern post politics and the view that radical practice has no other future than its reduction to the workings of the free market in the form of the simple process of cultural production or to variations on the cultural politics of representation Today s avant garde formed in the wake of the end of the Soviet Union and the rise of the anti globalization movement represents a counter power that rejects the inevitability of capitalist integration The way out for artists in today s world of creative industries is defined in these pages as a psychoanalytically informed sinthomeopathic practice a critical identification with prevailing conditions of production that avoids the surplus enjoyment of the ideology of postmodern pluralism
