Culture and Society in Later Roman Antioch Isabella Sandwell, Janet Huskinson, 2017-02-28 This collection of papers brings together a broad range of new research and new material on Antioch in the late Roman period the 2nd to the 7th centuries AD from the writings of the orator Libanius and the preacher John Chrysostom to the extensive mosaics found in the city and its suburbs The authors consider the lively issues of identity and ethnicity in this truly multi cultural and multi religious city the effects of Romanization and Christianization on the city and surrounding region and the central place of the city in the Roman world These papers were presented at a colloquium in London in December 2001 Ancient West & East G.R. Tsetschladze, 2006-11-30 Originally published as a double issue of Volume 5 2006 of Brill's bi annual Ancient West East

Symeon Stylites the Younger and Late Antique Antioch Lucy Parker, 2022-06-23 Symeon Stylites the Younger and Late Antique Antioch From Hagiography to History is a study of the authority of the holy man and its limits in times of crisis Lucy Parker investigates the tensions that emerged when increasingly ambitious claims about the powers of holy men came into conflict with undeniable evidence of their failures and explores how holy men and their supporters responded to this The work takes as its central figure Symeon Stylites the Younger c 521-592 who from his vantage point on a column on a mountain close to Antioch witnessed a period of exceptional turbulence in the local area which in the sixth century experienced plague earthquakes and Persian invasion Through an examination of Symeon's own writings as well as his hagiographic biography it reveals that the stylite was a divisive figure who played upon social tensions and upon culturally sensitive areas such as paganism to carve out a role for himself as prophet and spiritual authority in the face of considerable opposition It sets Symeon's life and cult in the context of Antioch and eastern Roman society offering a new perspective on the state of the empire in the period before the rise of Islam It argues that hagiography is an exceptionally rich source for the historian offering insights into debates and tensions which reached to the heart of Christianity Heresy and Identity in Late Antiquity Eduard Iricinschi, Holger M. Zellentin, 2008 The papers collected in this volume shift the focus away from heretics and heresy to heresiological discourse by contextualizing the late antique Jewish and Christian groups that produced our extant literature The contributors to the volume draw from multiple literary corpora and genres bringing a variety of late antique perspective to explore the discursive construction of the Other They unravel ethnic identities and re create the multiple voices textured in the dialogue between the orthodox and heretical writers BOOK JACKET Culture and Society in Later Roman Antioch Isabella Sandwell, Janet Huskinson, 2017-02-28 This collection of papers brings together a broad range of new research and new material on Antioch in the late Roman period the 2nd to the 7th centuries AD from the writings of the orator Libanius and the preacher John Chrysostom to the extensive mosaics found in the city and its suburbs The authors consider the lively issues of identity and ethnicity in this truly multi cultural and multi religious city the effects of Romanization and Christianization on the city and surrounding region and the central place of the city in the Roman world

Antioch II Silke-Petra Bergjan, Susanna Elm, 2018-09-04 During the fourth century Antioch on the Orontes was the most important imperial residence in the Roman Empire and a hot bed of intellectual and religious activity The writings of men such as Libanius the emperor Julian Ammianus Marcellinus John Chrysostom Theodoret and many others provide a density of written sources that is nearly unmatched in antiquity while the archaeological evidence of the city's evolution is much harder to reconstruct This volume assembles state of the art scholarship on these ancient authors within the context of recent archaeological work to offer a rare comprehensive view of this late Roman city Contributors Rudolf Brandle Gunnar Brands Silke Petra Bergjan Susanna Elm Johannes Hahn Gavin Kelly Blake Leyerle Jaclyn Maxwell Wendy Mayer Yannis Papadogiannakis Catherine Saliou Adam M Schor Christine Shepardson Jan R Stenger Claudia Tiersch Edward Watts Jorit Wintjes

Food, Virtue, and the Shaping of Early Christianity Dana Robinson, 2020-08-13 In this book Dana Robinson examines the role that food played in the Christianization of daily life in the fourth century CE Early Christians used the food culture of the Hellenized Mediterranean world to create and debate compelling models of Christian virtue and to project Christian ideology onto common domestic practices Combining theoretical approaches from cognitive linguistics and space place theory Robinson shows how metaphors for piety such as health fruit and sacrifice relied on food related domains of common knowledge medicine agriculture votive ritual which in turn generated sophisticated and accessible models of lay discipline and moral formation She also demonstrates that Christian places and landscapes of piety were socially constructed through meals and food production networks that extended far beyond the Eucharist Food culture thus provided a network of metaphorical concepts and spatial practices that allowed the lay faithful to participate in important debates over Christian living and community formation

Political Autobiographies and Memoirs in Antiquity Gabriele Marasco, 2015-11-24 Ancient autobiography has been the object of several studies and meetings However these have focused chiefly on the philosophical and literary aspects This book aims to examine the development of political autobiography and memoirs in the Greek and Roman world stressing instead the relation of a single work with the traditions of the genre and also the influence of the respective aims of the authors on the composition of autobiographies At times these works were written as a means of propaganda in a political struggle or to defend a past action and often to furnish material to historians Nonetheless they still preserve the personal viewpoint and voice of the protagonists in all their vividness even if distorted by the aim of defending their record Political Autobiographies and Memoirs in Antiquity will be a highly valuable and useful reference tool for both scholars and students of Greek and Roman history and literature

The Specter of the Jews Ari Finkelstein, 2018-10-23 In the generation after Constantine the Great elevated Christianity to a dominant position in the Roman Empire his nephew the Emperor Julian sought to reinstate the old gods to their former place of prominence in the face of intense opposition from the newly powerful Christian church In early 363 c e while living in Syrian Antioch Julian redoubled his efforts to hellenize the Roman Empire by turning to an unlikely source the Jews With a war against Persia on the horizon Julian thought it crucial that all Romans propitiate the true gods and gain their favor through proper practice To convince his people he drew on Jews whom he characterized as Judeans using their scriptures institutions practices and heroes sometimes as sources for his program and often as models to emulate In The Specter of the Jews Ari Finkelstein examines Julian s writings and views on Jews as Judeans a venerable group whose religious practices and values would help delegitimize Christianity and surprisingly shape a new imperial Hellenic pagan identity

Apostolic Letters of Faith, Hope, and Love Bruce M. Metzger, 2006-10-15 Professor Metzger has been a leader in New Testament studies for the past fifty years through his teaching his publications his text critical work and his translation work This volume brings his deep insight to three key epistles focusing on three fundamental Christian virtues
