Cultures Of United States Imperialism New Americanists:

Cultures of United States Imperialism Amy Kaplan, Donald E. Pease, 1993 Cultures of United States Imperialism represents a major paradigm shift that will remap the field of American Studies Pointing to a glaring blind spot in the basic premises of the study of American culture leading critics and theorists in cultural studies history anthropology and literature reveal the denial of empire at the heart of American Studies Challenging traditional definitions and periodizations of imperialism this volume shows how international relations reciprocally shape a dominant imperial culture at home and how imperial relations are enacted and contested within the United States Drawing on a broad range of interpretive practices these essays range across American history from European representations of the New World to the mass media spectacle of the Persian Gulf War The volume breaks down the boundary between the study of foreign relations and American culture to examine imperialism as an internal process of cultural appropriation and as an external struggle over international power The contributors explore how the politics of continental and international expansion conquest and resistance have shaped the history of American culture just as much as the cultures of those it has dominated By uncovering the dialectical relationship between American cultures and international relations this collection demonstrates the necessity of analyzing imperialism as a political or economic process inseparable from the social relations and cultural representations of gender race ethnicity and class at home Contributors Lynda Boose Mary Yoko Brannen Bill Brown William Cain Eric Cheyfitz Vicente Diaz Frederick Errington Kevin Gaines Deborah Gewertz Donna Haraway Susan Jeffords Myra Jehlen Amy Kaplan Eric Lott Walter Benn Michaels Donald E Pease Vicente Rafael Michael Rogin Jos David Sald var Richard Slotkin Doris Sommer Gauri Viswanathan Priscilla Wald Kenneth Warren Christopher P Wilson

Reading the Canon Philipp Löffler, 2017-03-02 Reading the Canon explores the relation between the production of literary value and the problem of periodization tracing how literary tastes particular reader communities and sites of literary learning shape the organization of literature in historical perspective Rather than suggesting a political critique of the canon this book shows that the production of literary relevance and its tacit hierarchies of value are necessary consequences of how reading and writing are organized as social practices within different fields of literary activity Reading the Canon offers a comprehensive theoretical account of the conundrums still defining contemporary debates about literary value the book also features a series of historically inflected author studies from classics such as Shakespeare and Thomas Pynchon to less likely figures such as John Neal and Owen Johnson that illustrate how the idea of literary relevance has been appropriated throughout history and across a variety of national and transnational literary institutions

Transcendental Resistance Johannes Voelz, 2010 A timely and engrossing critique of the New Americanists

Chicano Nations Marissa K. López, 2011 Chicano Nations argues that the trans nationalism that is central to Chicano identity originated in the global postcolonial moment at the turn of the nineteenth century rather than as an effect of contemporary economic conditions which began in the mid nineteenth century and primarily affected the labouring classes The Spanish empire then began to implode and colonists in the new world debated the national contours of the viceroyalties This is where Marissa K Lopez locates the origins of Chicano literature which is now and always has been post national encompassing the wealthy the poor the white and the mestizo Tracing the long history of Chicano literature and the diversity of subject positions it encompasses Chicano Nations explores the shifting literary forms authors have used to write the nation from the nineteenth to the twenty first centuries Lopez argues that while national and global tensions lie at the historical heart of Chicana o narratives of the nation there should be alternative ways to imagine the significance of Chicano literature other than as a reflection of national identity In a nuanced analysis the book provides a way to think of early writers as a meaningful part of Chicano literary history and in looking at the nation rather than the particularities of identity as that which connects Chicano literature over time it engages the emerging hemispheric scholarship on U S literature

A Companion to American Literature and Culture Paul Lauter, 2020-09-21 This expansive Companion offers a set of fresh perspectives on the wealth of texts produced in and around what is now the United States Highlights the diverse voices that constitute American literature embracing oral traditions slave narratives regional writing literature of the environment and more Demonstrates that American literature was multicultural before Europeans arrived on the continent and even more so thereafter Offers three distinct paradigms for thinking about American literature focusing on genealogies of American literary study writers and issues and contemporary theories and practices Enables students and researchers to generate richer more varied and more comprehensive readings of American literature

Nightmare Envy and Other Stories George Blaustein, 2018-01-05 Nightmare Envy and Other Stories is a study of Americanist writing and institutions in the 20th century It traces the histories of American Studies anthropology cultural diplomacy and literary criticism through World War II and the American occupations of Europe

At War David Kieran, Edwin A. Martini, 2018-04-05 The country s wars in Iraq and Afghanistan its interventions around the world and its global military presence make war the military and militarism defining features of contemporary American life The armed services and the wars they fight shape all aspects of life from the formation of racial and gendered identities to debates over environmental and immigration policy Warfare and the military are ubiquitous in popular culture At War offers short accessible essays addressing the central issues in the new military history ranging from diplomacy and the history of imperialism to the environmental issues that war raises and the ways that war shapes and is shaped by discourses of identity to questions of who serves in the U S military and why and how U S wars have been represented in the media and in popular culture

Revisionary Interventions Into the Americanist Canon Donald E. Pease, 1994-06-17 Throughout the era of the Cold War a consensus reigned as to what constituted the great works of American literature Yet as scholars have increasingly shown and as this volume unmistakably demonstrates that consensus was built upon the repression of the voices and historical contexts of subordinated social groups as well as literary works themselves works both outside and within the traditional canon This book is an effort to recover those lost voices Engaging New Historicist neo Marxist poststructuralist and other literary practices this volume marks important shifts in the organizing principles and self understanding of the field of American Studies Originally published as a special issue of boundary 2 the essays gathered here discuss writers as diverse as Kate Chopin Frederick Douglass Emerson Melville W D Howells Henry James W E B DuBois and Mark Twain plus the historical figure John Brown Two major sections devoted to the theory of romance and to cultural historical analyses emphasize the political perspective of New Americanist literary and cultural study Contributors William E Cain Wai chee Dimock Howard Horwitz Gregory S Jay Steven Mailloux John McWilliams Susan Mizruchi Donald E Pease Ivy Schweitzer Priscilla Wald Michael Warner Robert Weimann Post-Colonial Globalisation Yonit Manor-Percival, Janet Dine, 2023-09-22 With the globalist project immersed in conflicts and adversity Post Colonial Globalisation offers an insight into the actors who animate it and the power dynamics which run through it Using the law as the prism through which these are examined and fusing historical with contemporary perspectives the book contributes to understanding the crisis in which we find ourselves as a moment of both existential danger and an opportunity This book is in two parts The first part charts capitalism's historical progression to globalism through the lens of the act of taking Taking has risen to institutional prominence as a core concept in the legal lexicon of foreign investment protection to denote deprivation of private property Post Colonial Globalisation advances a broader notion of taking as a tool of social criticism From enclosures to colonial settlement to an empire of unequal exchanges to contemporary land grabs private property now so vigorously protected against taking was itself born out of taking The second part focuses on the ecological dimension of neoliberal globalisation and its hallmarks of unlimited growth and excessive extraction It has negatively impacted the climate the earth and its human and non human inhabitants to the point of putting their continued existence at risk Central to this is the deification of property Our understanding of proprietary relations and the rights they confer must be revisited if our interface with the planet is to be reconfigured The emerging doctrine of rights of nature offers one route which may lead us in this direction The two parts complement each other One looks at taking by members of the human species from each other The other looks at taking by the human species from nature This book is aimed at anyone who wishes to gain insight into the current crisis including students academics NGOs and policymakers X—The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought Nahum Dimitri Chandler, 2013-12-15 The acclaimed scholar and author of Beyond This Narrow Now presents a provocative new reading of W E B Du Bois with far reaching implications X The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought offers an original account of matters African American and by implication the African diaspora in general as an object of discourse and knowledge It likewise challenges the conception of analogous objects of study across dominant ethnological disciplines e g anthropology history and sociology and the various forms of cultural ethnic and postcolonial studies With special reference to the work of W E B Du Bois Chandler shows how a concern with the Negro is central to the social and historical problematization that underwrote twentieth century explorations of what it means to exist as an historical entity referring to their antecedents in eighteenth century thought and forward into their ongoing itinerary in the twenty first century Nahum Chandler is one of the very few truly indispensable thinkers at work in the study of the African diaspora which is as he so brilliantly shows the study of the modern world Fred Moten Duke University
