Culture And Memory In Medieval Islam:

Culture and Memory in Medieval Islam Edited By Farhad Daftary And Josef W. Meri, 2003 Power, Patronage, and Memory in Early Islam Alain George, Andrew Marsham, 2018 When the Umayyads the first Islamic dynasty rose to power shortly after the death of the Prophet Muhammad d 632 the polity of which they assumed control had only recently expanded out of Arabia into the Roman eastern Mediterranean Iraq and Iran A century later by the time of their downfall in 750 the last Umayyad caliphs governed the largest empire that the world had seen stretching from Spain in the West to the Indus valley and Central Asia in the East By then their dynasty and the ruling circles around it had articulated with increasing clarity the public face of the new monotheistic religion of Islam created major masterpieces of world art and architecture some of which still stand today and built a state apparatus that was crucial to ensuring the continuity of the Islamic polity Within the vast lands under their control the Umayyads and their allies ruled over a mosaic of peoples languages and faiths first among them Christianity Judaism and the Ancient religion of Iran Zoroastrianism The Umayyad period is profoundly different from ours yet it also resonates with modern concerns from the origins of Islam to dynamics of cultural exchange Editors Alain George and Andrew Marsham bring together a collection of essays that shed new light on this crucial period Power Patronage and Memory in Early Islam elucidates the ways in which Umayyad elites fashioned and projected their self image and how these articulations in turn mirrored their own times The authors combining perspectives from different disciplines present new material evidence introduce fresh perspectives about key themes and monuments and revisit the nature of the historical writing that shaped our knowledge of this period Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization Medieval Empires and the Culture of Competition Samuel England, 2018-03-07 The first book to look critically at digital technologies and the role they play within queer lives in contemporary India Authority and Identity in Medieval Islamic Historiography Mimi Hanaoka, 2016-09-09 Intriguing dreams improbable myths fanciful genealogies and suspect etymologies These were all key elements of the historical texts composed by scholars and bureaucrats on the peripheries of Islamic empires between the tenth and fifteenth centuries But how are historians to interpret such narratives And what can these more literary histories tell us about the people who wrote them and the times in which they lived In this book Mimi Hanaoka offers an innovative interdisciplinary method of approaching these sorts of local histories from the Persianate world By paying attention to the purpose and intention behind a text s creation her book highlights the preoccupation with authority to rule and legitimacy within disparate regional provincial ethnic sectarian ideological and professional communities By reading these texts in such a way Hanaoka transforms the literary patterns of these fantastic histories into rich sources of information about identity rhetoric authority legitimacy and centre periphery relations Memory and Commemoration in Medieval Culture Dr Elma Brenner, Dr Mary Franklin-Brown, Dr Meredith Cohen, 2013-04-28 In medieval society and culture memory occupied a unique position. It was central to intellectual life and the medieval understanding of the human mind. Commemoration of the dead was also a fundamental Christian activity. Above all, the past and the memory of it occupied a central position in medieval thinking, from ideas concerning the family unit to those shaping political institutions. Focusing on France but incorporating studies from further afield, this collection of essays marks an important new contribution to the study of medieval memory and commemoration. Arranged thematically, each part highlights how memory cannot be studied in isolation but instead intersects with many other areas of medieval scholarship, including art history, historiography, intellectual history, and the study of religious culture. Key themes in the study of memory are explored, such as collective memory, the links between memory and identity, the fallibility of memory, and the linking of memory to the future as an anticipation of what is to come.

Political Culture in the Latin West, Byzantium and the Islamic World, c.700-c.1500 Catherine Holmes, Jonathan Shepard, Jo van Steenberg, Björn Weiler, 2021-08-26 This comparative study explores three key cultural and political spheres: the Latin West, Byzantium, and the Islamic world, from Central Asia to the Atlantic, roughly from the emergence of Islam to the fall of Constantinople. These spheres drew on a shared pool of late antique Mediterranean culture, philosophy, and science, and they had monotheism and historical antecedents in common. Yet where exactly political and spiritual power lay and how it was exercised differed. This book focuses on power dynamics and resource allocation among ruling elites, the legitimisation of power and property with the aid of religion, and on rulers' interactions with local elites and societies. Offering the reader a route map towards navigating each sphere and grasping the fundamentals of its political culture, this set of parallel studies offers a timely and much-needed framework for comparing the societies surrounding the medieval Mediterranean.

Routes and Realms Zayde Antrim, 2012-10-18 Routes and Realms explores the ways in which Muslims expressed attachment to land in formal texts from the ninth through the eleventh centuries. These texts reveal that territories were imagined specifically as homes, cities, and regions and acted as powerful categories of belonging in the early Islamic world.

Mediaeval Islamic Historiography and Political Legitimacy Andrew Peacock, 2007-03-06 The Tarikhnamah is a history of the world and the oldest surviving work of Persian prose. This book examines it as a political and cultural document and why it became such an influential work in the Islamic world.

Routledge Handbook of Islamic Ritual and Practice Oliver Leaman, 2022-06-08 Ritual and practice are one of the most distinctive features of religion, and they are linked with its central beliefs. Islam is no exception here, and this Handbook covers many aspects of those beliefs and practices. It describes the variety of what takes place but mainly why, and what the implications of both the theory and practice have for our understanding of Islam. The book includes accounts of prayer, food, pilgrimage, mosques, and the various legal and doctrinal schools that exist within Islam, with the focus on how they influence practice. The volume is organized in terms of texts groups practices places and others An attempt has been made to discuss the wide range of Muslim ritual and practice and provide a sound guide to this significant aspect of the religious life of one of the largest groups of believers in the world today
