Children and the Power of Stories Carmen Blyth, Teresa K. Aslanian, 2022-03-04 This book explores how stretching stories through posthuman and autoethnographic perspectives can produce new stories that decolonialize traditional thinking and approaches to Early Childhood Education ECE It demonstrates how stories can provide a different way of knowing and a way of knowing differently a way of decolonializing current discourses of early childhood education within educational institutions The book uses research and practice in ECE to act as a canvas a context with which to explore how autoethnography can become other when viewed through a posthumanist lens As a consequence the chapters and stories within allow for an interplay between the posthumanist and the autoethnographic an interplay that allows for a very specific type of meaning to emerge a meaning that traffics in numerous and disruptive possibilities rather than settled certainties In so doing authors rethink and perturb the notion of child centered approaches to knowing be coming and doing within the Early Childhood Education context
