Cities Surround The Countryside Urban Aesthetics In Postsocialist China:

Cities Surround The Countryside Robin Visser, 2010-04-12 Explores the cultural significance of the explosive growth of China's cities during the past three decades through interpretations of Chinese fiction cinema visual art architecture and urban design

Painting the City Red Yomi Braester, 2010-04-07 An examination of the role of cinema and theater in representing urban transformations in China from 1949 to the present

Underglobalization Joshua Neves, 2020-03-06 Despite China's recent emergence as a major global economic and geopolitical power its association with counterfeit goods and intellectual property piracy has led many in the West to dismiss its urbanization and globalization as suspect or inauthentic In Underglobalization Joshua Neves examines the cultural politics of the fake and how frictions between legality and legitimacy propel dominant models of economic development and political life in contemporary China Focusing on a wide range of media technologies and practices in Beijing Neves shows how piracy and fakes are manifestations of what he calls underglobalization the ways social actors undermine and refuse to implement the specific procedures and protocols required by globalization at different scales By tracking the rise of fake politics and transformations in political society in China and globally Neves demonstrates that they are alternate outcomes of globalizing processes rather than anathema to them

Visual Arts, Representations and Interventions in Contemporary China Minna Valjakka, Meiqin Wang, 2025-10-01 This edited volume provides a multifaceted investigation of the dynamic interrelations between visual arts and urbanization in contemporary Mainland China with a focus on unseen representations and urban interventions brought about by the transformations of the urban space and the various problems associated with it Through a wide range of illuminating case studies the authors demonstrate how innovative artistic and creative practices initiated by various stakeholders not only raise critical awareness on socio-political issues of Chinese urbanization but also actively reshape the urban living spaces The formation of new collaborations agencies aesthetics and cultural production sites facilitate diverse forms of cultural activism as they challenge the dominant ways of interpreting social changes and encourage civic participation in the production of alternative meanings in and of the city Their significance lies in their potential to question current values and power structures as well as to foster new subjectivities for disparate individuals and social groups

Making Cultural Cities in Asia June Wang, Tim Oakes, Yang Yang, 2015-12-22 This book examines the vast and largely uncharted world of cultural creative city making in Asia It explores the establishment of policy models and practices against the backdrop of a globalizing world and considers the dynamic relationship between powerful actors and resources that impact Asian cities Making Cultural Cities in Asia approaches this dynamic process through the lens of assemblage how the policy models of cultural creative cities have been extracted from the flow of ideas and how re-invented versions have been assembled territorialized and exported This approach reveals a spectrum between globally circulating ideals on the one hand and the place-based contexts and contingencies on the other At one end of the spectrum this book features chapters on policy mobility in particular the political construction of the web of communication and the restructuring or rescaling of the state At the other end chapters examine the increasingly fragmented social forces their changing roles in the process and their negotiations alignments and resistances This book will be of interest to researchers and policy makers concerned with cultural and urban studies creative industries and Asian studies The Bishan Commune and the Practice of Socially Engaged Art in Rural China Mai Corlin,2020-08-14 This book is concerned with socially engaged art projects in the Chinese countryside with the artists and intellectuals who are involved the villagers they meet and the local authorities with whom they negotiate In recent years an increasing number of urban artists have turned towards the countryside in an attempt to revive rural areas perceived to be in a crisis The vantage point of this book is the Bishan Commune In 2010 Ou Ning drafted a notebook entitled Bishan Commune How to Start Your Own Utopia The notebook presents a utopian ideal of life based on anarchist Peter Kropotkin s idea of mutual aid In 2011 the Commune was established in Bishan Village in Anhui Province The main questions of this book thus revolve around how an anarchist utopian community unfolds to the backdrop of the political social and historical landscape of rural China or more directly How do you start your own utopia in the Chinese countryside

Urbanization and Contemporary Chinese Art Meiqin Wang,2015-08-11 This book explores the relationship between the ongoing urbanization in China and the production of contemporary Chinese art since the beginning of the twenty first century Wang provides a detailed analysis of artworks and methodologies of art making from eight contemporary artists who employ a wide range of mediums including painting sculpture photography installation video and performance She also sheds light on the relationship between these artists and their sociocultural origins investigating their provocative responses to various processes and problems brought about by Chinese urbanization With this urbanization comes a fundamental shift of the philosophical and aesthetic foundations in the practice of Chinese art from a strong affiliation with nature and countryside to one that is complexly associated with the city and the urban world Visions of Dystopia in China's New Historical Novels Jeffrey C. Kinkley,2014-11-04 The depiction of personal and collective suffering in modern Chinese novels differs significantly from standard Communist accounts and most Eastern and Western historical narratives Writers such as Yu Hua Su Tong Wang Anyi Mo Yan Han Shaogong Ge Fei Li Rui and Zhang Wei scramble common conceptions of China s modern development deploying avant garde narrative techniques from Latin American and Euro American modernism to project a surprisingly un Chinese dystopian vision and critical view of human culture and ethics The epic narratives of modern Chinese fiction make rich use of magical realism surrealism and unusual treatments of historical time Also featuring graphic depictions of sex and violence and dark raunchy comedy these novels deeply reflect China s turbulent recent history re presenting the overthrow of the monarchy in the early twentieth century and the resulting chaos of revolution and war the recurring miseries perpetrated by class warfare during the dictatorship of Mao Zedong and the social dislocations caused by China s industrialization and rise as a global power This book casts China s highbrow historical novels from the 1990s to the mid 2000s as a distinctively Chinese contribution to the form of the global dystopian novel and consequently to global thinking about the interrelations of utopia and dystopia

Ancient and Modern Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West Gregory Bracken, 2025-10-01 What does it mean to be a good citizen today What are practices of citizenship And what can we learn from the past about these practices to better engage in city life in the twenty first century Ancient and Modern Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West Care of the Self is a collection of papers that examine these questions The contributors come from a variety of different disciplines including architecture urbanism philosophy and history and their essays make comparative examinations of the practices of citizenship from the ancient world to the present day in both the East and the West The papers comparative approaches between East and West and ancient and modern leads to a greater understanding of the challenges facing citizens in the urbanized twenty first century and by looking at past examples suggests ways of addressing them While the book s point of departure is philosophical its key aim is to examine how philosophy can be applied to everyday life for the betterment of citizens in cities not just in Asia and the West but everywhere

How Cities Matter Richard Harris, 2021-08-12 Most historians and social scientists treat cities as mere settings In fact urban places shape our experience There daily life has a faster artificial rhythm and for good and ill people and agencies affect each other through externalities uncompensated effects whose impact is inherently geographical In economic terms urban concentration enables efficiency and promotes innovation while raising the costs of land housing and labour Socially it can alienate or provide anonymity while fostering new forms of community It creates congestion and pollution posing challenges for governance Some effects extend beyond urban borders creating cultural change The character of cities varies by country and world region but it has generic qualities a claim best tested by comparing places that are most different These qualities intertwine creating built environments that endure To fully comprehend such path dependency we need to develop a synthetic vision that is historically and geographically informed
