Cemetery Of The Murdered Daughters Feminism History And Ingeborg Bachmann:

Cemetery of the Murdered Daughters Sara Lennox, 2006 Although Austrian writer Ingeborg Bachmann 1926 1973 is widely regarded as one of the most important twentieth century authors writing in German her novels and stories have sometimes been viewed narrowly as portraits of women as victims In this innovative study Sara Lennox provides a much broader perspective on Bachmann's work at the same time undertaking an experiment in feminist methodology Lennox examines Bachmann's poetry and prose in historical context arguing that the varied feminist interpretations of her writings are the result of shifts in theoretical emphases over a period of more than three decades Lennox then places her own essays on Bachmann in similar perspective showing how each piece reflects the historical moment in which it was written Making use of recent interdisciplinary approaches Foucauldian theories of sexuality post colonial theory materialist feminism she explores the extent to which each of her earlier readings was shaped by the methods employed the questions asked and the political issues that seemed most germane at the time Out of this analysis comes a new understanding of the significance of Bachmann's work and new insight into the theory and practice of feminist criticism Crisis and Form in the Later

Writing of Ingeborg Bachmann Áine McMurtry, 2012 Ingeborg Bachmann 1927 73 one of the most acclaimed German language poets of the post war period famously turned away from the lyric during the 1960s Publicly declaring that she had stopped writing poetry Bachmann began work on the prose Todesarten cycle that would dominate the last decade of her life During a period of personal breakdown in the 1960s however she privately continued to write in verse and the publication of selected drafts in 2000 threw new light on her compositional methods in this period As the most extensive study to date of the poetic drafts this monograph leads away from the polemic that surrounded their publication to establish the fragmentary texts as an experimental stage of writing that proved formally and thematically significant for later published prose works Bridging the genre gap of much Bachmann scholarship McMurtry illuminates the development of a reflexive mode where sophisticated aesthetic strategies enable the oblique expression of cultural critique In McMurtry is Lecturer in German at Durham University In the Shadow of Empire Malcolm Spencer, 2008 Spencer then considers Roth's more negative reaction showing the post imperial novel Radetzkymarsch to be a nostalgic response to the collapse of Habsburg Austria and the rise of fascism The final chapter looks again at the end of empire not in the work of writers who lived through it but through that of one who experienced it as a historical and cultural legacy Ingeborg Bachmann BOOK JACKET

Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda Lê Alexandra Kurmann, 2016-01-14 Intertextual Weaving in the Work of Linda L. Imagining the Ideal Reader uncovers the primary textual relationship that Linda L. 1963 the most prolific Francophone author of the Vietnamese diaspora fosters with a literary precursor of Austrian descent the feminist writer in exile Ingeborg Bachmann 1926 1973 This study offers an overdue exploration of the notably European roots of L's writerly formation It traces an unexamined feminist import in her work to a sixteen year inter and intra textual engagement with

Bachmann and positions the latter as an imagined ideal reader of L's oeuvre Intertextual analyses of Bachmann's post war novel Malina with L's literary essays early fiction and trilogy reveal that to overcome the challenges of writing in exile L adopts an alternative literary forebear of the European tradition

Historical Dictionary of Postwar German

Literature William Grange, 2009-07-09 Some authors strongly criticized attempts to rebuild a German literary culture in the aftermath of World War II while others actively committed themselves to dealing with the German past There are writers in Austria and Switzerland that find other contradictions of contemporary life troubling while some find them funny or even worth celebrating German postwar literature has in the minds of some observers developed a kind of split personality In view of the traumatic monstrosities of the previous century that development may seem logical to some The Historical Dictionary of Postwar German Literature is devoted to modern literature produced in the German language whether from Germany Austria Switzerland or writers using German in other countries This volume covers an extensive period of time beginning in 1945 at what was called zero hour for German literature and proceeds into the 21st century concluding in 2008 This is done through a list of acronyms and abbreviations a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on writers such as Nobel Prize winners Heinrich Böll Günter Grass Elias Canetti Elfriede Jelinek and W G Sebald There are also entries on individual works genres movements literary styles and forms

The

Differentiation of Modernism Larson Powell, 2013 The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes the phenomenon of intermediality in German radio plays film music and electronic music of the late modernist period 1945-1980 After 1945 the purist medium specificity of high modernism increasingly yielded to the mixed forms of intermediality Theodor Adorno dubbed this development a Verfransung or fraying of boundaries between the arts The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes this phenomenon in German electronic media arts of the late modernist period 1945-80 in radio plays film music and electronic music The first part of the book begins with a chapter on Adorno's theory of radio as an instrument of democratization going on to analyze the relationship of the Hörspiel or radio play to electronic music In the second part on film music a chapter on Adorno and Eisler's Composing for the Film sets the parameters for chapters on the film Das Mädchen Rosemarie 1957 and on the music films of Jean Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet The third part examines the music of Karlheinz Stockhausen and its relationship to radio abstract painting recording technology and theatrical happenings The book's central notion of the differentiation of culture suggests that late modernism unlike high modernism accepted the contingency of modern mass media driven society and sought to find new forms for it Larson Powell is Curator's Professor of Film Studies at University of Missouri Kansas City He is the author of The Technological Unconscious in German Modernist Literature Camden House 2008

Women and National Socialism in Postwar German Literature

Katherine Stone, 2017 In recent years historians have revealed the many ways in which German women supported National Socialism as teachers frontline auxiliaries and nurses as well as in political organizations In mainstream culture however the women of the period are still predominantly depicted as the victims of a violent twentieth century whose atrocities were committed by men. They are frequently imagined as post hoc redeemers of the nation as the rubble women who spiritually and literally rebuilt Germany. This book investigates why the question of women's complicity in the Third Reich has struggled to capture the historical imagination in the same way. It explores how female authors from across the political and generational spectrum Ingeborg Bachmann, Christa Wolf, Elisabeth Plessen, Gisela Elsner, Tanja Dückers, Jenny Erpenbeck conceptualize the role of women in the Third Reich. As well as offering innovative readings of celebrated works, this book provides instructive interpretations of lesser known texts that nonetheless enrich our understanding of German memory culture. Katherine Stone is Assistant Professor in German Studies at the University of Warwick. Authors and the World Rebecca

Braun, 2022-07-14. Authors and the World traces how four core modes of authorship have developed and inflect one another in modern Germany through a series of twenty different case studies including the work of Thomas Mann, Günter Grass, Anna Seghers, Walter Hasenclever, Felicitas Hoppe and Katja Petrowskaja and original interview material with contemporary writers Ulrike Draesner, Olga Martynova and Ulrike Almut Sandig. Modes of authorship are attitudes taken towards being an author that can be seen both in what an individual author does and in how a particular literary tradition or trend is perceived and mediated by others both within and beyond Pierre Bourdieu's literary field. Consequently they deliberately straddle questions of literary production and reception. Rebecca Braun sets out how the commemorative, celebratory, utopian and satirical modes interact with one another to produce a number of models of authorship that carry either foundational or otherwise normative force for society. In varying combinations and with deep roots in 19th and early 20th century practices the four modes of authorship create a remarkably and at times troublingly stable German literature network that to a large degree still determines the way contemporary German speaking authors enact their cultural significance in their writing, engage with their local circumstances and are more broadly received around the world. Authors and the World provides not just a radically new approach to German literary history but a thoroughly new paradigm for thinking about literary authorship. The

Palgrave Handbook of Literary Translation Jean Boase-Beier, Lina Fisher, Hiroko Furukawa, 2018-06-26. This Handbook offers a comprehensive and engaging overview of contemporary issues in Literary Translation research through in-depth investigations of actual case studies of particular works, authors or translators. Leading researchers from across the globe discuss best practice problems and possibilities in the translation of poetry, novels, memoir and theatre. Divided into three sections, these illuminating analyses also address broad themes including translation style, the author-translator-reader relationship and relationships between national identity and literary translation. The case studies are drawn from languages and language varieties such as Catalan, Chinese, Dutch, English, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Nigerian English, Russian, Spanish, Scottish English and Turkish. The editors provide thorough introductory and concluding chapters which highlight the value of case study research and explore in detail the importance of the theory-practice link. Covering a wide range of topics perspectives methods languages and geographies this handbook will provide a valuable resource for researchers not only in Translation Studies but also in the related fields of Linguistics Languages and Cultural Studies Stylistics Comparative Literature or Literary Studies

Gender and Trauma Fatima Festić, 2011-11-15 This volume presents eight integrated essays that explore the intersection of the scholarly fields of gender and trauma combining work that can broadly be located in the subject areas of literary studies the humanities and the social sciences The contributors search for a more comprehensive theoretical ground to analyze the overlapping inter agency and also the lines that separate the issues of gender and trauma to establish a more political linking of the materiality of the effects of trauma to the performativity of gender as well as to examine the ways in which the categories of sex sexual difference and sexual identity figure within such a relationship Likewise our discussion is guided by the increasing awareness of the cross cultural delineation dynamics and translatability of these fields the awareness that facilitates the understanding of the instances of their interference in the rhetoric of a dominant culture and in dominant societal structures This specific input which refers to structurally quite comparable identity formations or to their prevention and also to complex terms of symbolic legitimacy and intelligibility is the attainment of a joined intercultural and interdisciplinary work on some of the key concerns we are confronting today
