Creation Out Of Clay:

Creation and the Teaching of the Qur'ān Thomas J. O'Shaughnessy, 1985 The Qur'an often proposes God's creative activity as a proof of His beneficence and of His power to accomplish the final resurrection of mankind The way creation is described shows the influence of Jewish biblical and talmudic tradition The present study tries to determine the Qur'anic teaching on creation as an activity attributed properly to God and said to originate from nothing It inquires into the Qur'anic account of man's creation since the Qur'an like the Bible describes man's origin from seed but also from clay or dust

Decharneux, 2023-06-06 In Creation and Contemplation Julien Decharneux explores the connections between the cosmology of the Qur'an and various cosmological traditions of Late Antiquity with a focus on Syriac Christianity The first part of the book studies how in exhorting its audience to contemplate the world the Qur'an carries on a tradition of natural contemplation that had developed throughout Late Antiquity in the Christian world In this regard the analysis suggests particularly striking connections with the mystical and ascetic literature of the Church of the East which was in effervescence at the time of the emergence of Islam The second part argues that the Qur'anic cosmological discourse is built so as to serve the overarching theological message of the text namely God's absolute unity Despite the allusive and sometimes obscure way in which the Qur'an talks about the world's coming into being and its maintenance in existence the text betrays its authors' acquaintance with cosmological debates of Late Antiquity In studying the Qur'an through the prism of Late Antiquity this book contributes to our understanding of the emergence of Islam and its relationship with other religious traditions of the time Winner of the 2022 Marie Antoinette Van Huele Prize and the 2023 Richard Kreglinger Prize both Faculty of Philosophy and Social Sciences Free University of Brussels
