Dunham,Geoffrey P. Alpert,1989 Emerging Technologies for Next Generation Learning Spaces Bosede Iyiade Edwards,Nurbiha A. Shukor,Adrian David Cheok,2021-08-07 This book discusses the development of the next generation learning spaces with emerging technologies These spaces result from the combined needs of classroom stakeholders such as instructors and learners with classroom elements such as tools and technologies pedagogy and content The book presents discussions and studies on issues possibilities and implications of these changes for next generation education Novel ideas and studies on these all encompassing blended roles of technologies in next generation learning spaces are clearly presented Suggestions on how the benefits they offer can be maximized are also discussed Engaging learning technologies have remained central in education for assisting instructors to teach and learners to learn more effectively However recent technological growth is creating a system in which previous divides between key classroom concepts and stakeholders are getting progressively blurred This is giving rise to next generation learning spaces where elements and stakeholders are blended into one The book addresses the future of learning environments based on these perspectives e-Religion Anastasia Karaflogka,2014-12-18 Religion has flourished in cyberspace bringing individuals together helping to consolidate fringe religions promoting activism and evangelism and providing sites for the promotion and examination of specific issues E Religion is one of the first systematic scholarly studies of religion on the Web Providing a clear outline of Web epistemology and theory the book outlines the key methodologies for the study of e religions The book will be invaluable to students of religion sociology and technology Critical Issues in Judicial Affairs: Current Trends in Practice Wanda L. Mercer,1996-07-12 In the past two decades judicial administrators have become increasingly concerned with training both newcomers and veterans in the field and networking among professionals concerned with the administration of student discipline This sourcebook provides judicial administrators with practical information and guidelines in many aspects of student discipline While the authors often rely on legal precedent and case law this issues oriented handbook also deals with current trAnds and recent topics of interest in judicial affairs This is the 73rd issue of the journal New Directions for Student Services For more information about the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page The American Ideal Peter C. Carafiol,1991 This work argues that American literary scholarship

enshrines a reactionary vision of history of narrative and of America itself Carafiol examines the way idealist assumptions have been essential to doing American literary history and unwraps the implications of that symbiosis for current debates about the aims and methods of literary history in general Carafiol directs his critique not only at traditional approaches to American literature but also at the most influential recent efforts by New Historicists and cultural critics to revise that tradition Reconsidering the debate between ahistorical and historical models of literary study he argues that works by such writers like Emerson and Thoreau subvert the claims of critics on both sides Such writing is important he proposes not as timeless art or as social document but as a voice that can speak powerfully in contemporary conversations challenging literary critics in all fields to reconsider their critical assumptions and professional practices
