Crusading in the West Indies (Classic Reprint) W. F. Jordan, 2015-07-08 Excerpt from Crusading in the West Indies For fourteen years he has travelled incessantly throughout these Republics the next door neighbours of the American Republic He knows their life He knows their spirit He knows their needs as few men He has discovered as one of the great bishops of India discovered in a home visit that the work among these peoples is very similar to that in the great mission fields of Southern Asia At this hour when the Christian Church in America is feeling itself debtor to these Southern Republics this volume of Mr Jordan s is particularly timely It graphically portrays the beautiful tropical scenery the degradation of the poor the luxury and comfort of the rich the courtesy and kindness of all the people the hopefulness of service with a world of detail not surpassed by the famous author of Vagabonding Down the Andes Mrs Jordan a woman of training devoted to her husbands work has shared with him not only many of these journeys and deprivations which are harder for the mother and children often than for the traveller but has made them possible by caring for the home and bearing the loneliness of the months of her husbands absence While her pen has not been busy in this volume her observations and her reflections are a part of the story We cordially commend this most interesting story of Crusading in the West Indies About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A History of the Crusades, Volume V Kenneth M. Setton, Norman P. Zacour, Harry W. Hazard, 1985-09 This work contains information and analysis of the history politics economics and culture of the medieval world The six volumes stand as a history of the Crusades spanning five centuries encompassing Jewish Muslim and Christian perspectives The United States Catalog Mary Burnham, Carol Hurd, 1928 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993 Sugar Island Slavery in the Age of Enlightenment Arthur L. Stinchcombe, 1995-12-11 Plantations especially sugar plantations created slave societies and a racism persisting well into post slavery periods so runs a familiar argument that has been used to explain the sweep of Caribbean history Here one of the most eminent scholars of modern social theory applies this assertion to a comparative study of most Caribbean islands from the time of the American Revolution to the Spanish American War Arthur Stinchcombe uses insights from his own much admired Economic Sociology to show why sugar planters needed the help of repressive governments for recruiting disciplined labor Demonstrating that island to island variations on this theme were a function of geography local political economy and relation to outside powers he scrutinizes Caribbean slavery and Caribbean emancipation movements in a world historical context Throughout the book Stinchcombe aims to develop a sociology of freedom that explains a number of complex phenomena such as how liberty for some individuals may restrict the liberty of others. Thus the autonomous governments of colonies often produced more oppressive conditions for slaves than did so-called arbitrary governments which had the power to restrict the whims of the planters. Even after emancipation, freedom was not a clear-cut matter of achieving the ideals of the Enlightenment. Indeed, it was often a route to a social control more efficient than slavery, providing greater flexibility for the planter class and posing less risk of violent rebellion.

American Book Publishing Record, 1970 The School World, 1906 Guide to Reprints Albert James Diaz, 2008 The United States Catalog; Books in Print January 1, 1912 Marion Effie Potter, 1921 Negro with a Hat Colin Grant, 2008-03-17

In the first full-length biography of Garvey in a generation, Colin Grant captures the full sweep and epic dimensions of Garvey's life: the dazzling triumphs and the dreary exile. As Grant shows, Garvey was a man of contradictions: a self-educated poetry-writing aesthete and unabashed propagandist; an admirer of Lenin and a dandy given to elaborate public displays. Above all, he was a shrewd promoter whose use of pageantry evoked a lost African civilization and fired the imagination of his followers. Negro With a Hat restores Garvey to his place as one of the founders of black nationalism and a key figure of the 20th century.
