Community Capitalism Ron Kitchens, 2008. Perhaps you thought it was fantasy. Perhaps you thought it was a ruse. Perhaps you thought it was the actions of an immature heart and love that had yet to be educated by reality. Wrong. Actually, your first answer was right. Now you have to be unschooled and learn love all over again, and you might want to start here at that foundation of love. But you forgot: after all, it only lasted a couple of seconds, a couple of days, and then that place that those eyes took you disappeared like a mirage. You no longer have what it takes to graduate to love's stage seven. Don't worry. Illuminations will take you back. If infatuation is oft the cornerstone with which we set the foundation of love, why do we throw away that foundation when we build the school of our convictions as to what love is? But remember when we thought a love was perfect and we thought that love was supreme. Remember when we thought love would find ourselves in a perfect plot and we could reside there forever. Remember when love was the most beautiful thing in existence, and so was our love. Might I ask what is wrong with that? And if there is nothing wrong with that, why isn't it considered right? If the school of love in which the world learns fails and we are unable to graduate to love's better vision, if indeed we fail to take our love to a higher grade, perhaps we ought to find a better school. Love instinctively knows better, and the new foundation upon which love will be reschooled goes back to our original convictions when we thought love was perfect that love was supreme that love would deliver and that love is perfect There is a reason for that original conviction and it is because love is

Restaurant Business, 2000 Exploring Great Leadership R. Lynn Wilson, 2012-11-15 Just like you don't have to be a CEO to be a great leader you don't have to be a great leader to achieve personal success I have said that income wealth position and status are not measures of great leadership They are not measures of personal success either Personal success is achieved through honoring and respecting those around you including family friends fellow employees and others always being ethical at work and in your personal life channeling your motivation and desires toward specific career and personal goals which are compatible with your mental being and being willing to pay the price of achieving those goals through sacrifice and hard work Those who do that will find their niche for success and achieve it Another significant point I want to make is the importance of enthusiasm and a positive attitude to achieve that success especially when things are not going exactly as you envisioned or planned which will inevitably happen Most leadership books share ten steps for success five things to never forget and other such formulas Someone who wants to become a great leader must truly understand the psychology and practice of great leadership Leadership ability is obtained by having the necessary psychological makeup knowing one's self love of work honoring others personal sacrifice and having fun in the workplace Ignoring minimizing or mismanaging the human side of management creates suspicion fear and failure in the workplace Take a practical look at leadership from the inside of an organization and discover how to build positive and effective relationships Whether you're a great leader striving to be better someone wanting to be a great leader or an individual seeking to achieve your personal and professional dreams in life you can find the
