Censorship And Sexuality In Bombay Cinema:

Censorship and Sexuality in Bombay Cinema Monika Mehta, 2011-12-15 Based on the author's thesis doctoral University of Minnesota 2001 Censorship and Sexuality in Bombay Cinema Monika Mehta, 2012-08-24 India produces an impressive number of films each year in a variety of languages Here Monika Mehta breaks new ground by analyzing Hindi films and exploring the censorship of gender and heterosexuality in Bombay cinema She studies how film censorship on various levels makes the female body and female sexuality pivotal in constructing national identity not just through the films themselves but also through the heated debates that occur in newspapers and other periodicals The standard claim is that the state dictates censorship and various prohibitions but Mehta explores how relationships among the state the film industry and the public illuminate censorship's role in identity formation while also examining how desire profits and corruption are generated through the act of censoring Committed to extending a feminist critique of mass culture in the global south Mehta situates the story of censorship in a broad social context and traces the intriguing ways in which the heated debates on sexuality in Bombay cinema actually produce the very forms of sexuality they claim to regulate She imagines afresh the theoretical field of censorship by combining textual analysis archival research and qualitative fieldwork Her analysis reveals how central concepts of film studies such as stardom spectacle genre and sound are employed and re configured within the ambit of state censorship thereby expanding the scope of their application and impact The Routledge Handbook of Indian Indie Cinema Jayjit Sarkar, Anik Sarkar, 2025-04-22 This handbook offers a critical introduction to Indian Indie cinema exploring its subversion of dominant ideas aesthetics and narratives its inclusion of marginal and alternative experiences and ideologies its relationship with audiences and its defiance of norms followed by commercial Bollywood cinema It takes a critical look at independent and alternative films in India that cover a wide range of genres regions textual forms and languages These films may be regional experimental in style or feature innovative and timely sociopolitical interventions The handbook contextualises this cinema historically and addresses the key issues concerning its significance A definitive guide to independent Indian films this volume provides a critical understanding of the many experimentations undertaken by alternative voices and filmmakers in India offers new conceptual engagements that widen perspectives on minor and regional cinema and covers a wide range of films while touching upon current and new filmmaking trends emerging cinematic styles film production and key filmmakers These analyses of the Indie film industry and films in India are an essential read for students and researchers of media and film studies film studies cultural studies world cinema and contemporary cinema besides being of interest to film buffs A Companion to Indian Cinema Neepa Majumdar, Ranjani Mazumdar, 2022-08-23 A new collection in the Wiley Blackwell Companions to National Cinemas series featuring the cinemas of India In A Companion to Indian Cinema film scholars Neepa Majumdar and Ranjani Mazumdar along with 25 established and emerging scholars deliver new research on contemporary and historical questions on Indian cinema The collection considers Indian cinema's widespread presence both within and outside the country and pays particular attention to regional cinemas such as Bhojpuri Bengali Malayalam Manipuri and Marathi. The volume also reflects on the changing dimensions of technology aesthetics and the archival impulse of film. The editors have included scholarship that discusses a range of films and film experiences that include commercial cinema art cinema and non-fiction film. Even as scholarship on earlier decades of Indian cinema is challenged by the absence of documentation and films, the innovative archival and field work in this Companion extends from cinema in early twentieth-century India to a historicized engagement with new technologies and contemporary cinematic practices. There is a focus on production cultures and circulation material cultures media aesthetics censorship stardom non-fiction practices new technologies and the transnational networks relevant to Indian cinema. Suitable for undergraduate and graduate students of film and media studies South Asian studies and history. A Companion to Indian Cinema is also an important new resource for scholars with an interest in the context and theoretical framework for the study of India's moving image cultures.

City of Screens Jasmine Nadua Trice, 2021-02-08 In City of Screens Jasmine Nadua Trice examines the politics of cinema circulation in early 2000s Manila. She traces Manila's cinema landscape by focusing on the primary locations of film exhibition and distribution: the pirated DVD district mall multiplexes art house cinemas the university film institute and state-sponsored cinematheques. In the wake of digital media piracy and the decline of the local commercial film industry the rising independent cinema movement has been a site of contestation between filmmakers and the state each constructing different notions of a prospective national public film audience. Discourses around audiences become more salient given that films by independent Philippine filmmakers are seldom screened to domestic audiences despite their international success. City of Screens provides a deeper understanding of the debates about the competing roles of the film industry the public and the state in national culture in the Philippines and beyond Postcolonial Studies Meets Media Studies Kai Merten, Lucia Krämer, 2016-04-15 The book brings together experts from Media and Communication Studies with Postcolonial Studies scholars to illustrate how the two fields may challenge and enrich each other Its essays introduce readers to selected topics including Media Convergence Transcultural Subjectivity Hegemony Piracy and Media History and Colonialism Drawing on examples from film literature music TV and the internet the contributors investigate the transnational dimensions in today s media engage with local and global media politics and discuss media outlets as economic agents thus illustrating mechanisms of power in postcolonial and neo colonial mediascapes
