Equivocal City Patrick Coleman, 2018-10-30 The study of Montreal as a specific location in French and English writings has long been subordinated to the demands of linguistically divided and politically contentious narratives about national development In this cross linguistic study Patrick Coleman models an inclusive and post national literary history of the city itself Tracing a sequence of moments in the emergence of the Montreal novel from World War II to the turbulent 1960s Equivocal City offers close readings of fourteen key works of fiction focusing on the inner dynamic of their construction as well as the unexpected convergences and contrasts in the narrative structures they adopt and the aesthetic perspective they seek to achieve Critically sophisticated but accessibly written this book gives a sympathetic account of how writers in both languages struggled to give integrated artistic expression to their experience of a city that was still linguistically compartmentalized and culturally insecure By analyzing the interplay between story and narrative form the book explores what French and English novelists could and could not imagine about the Montreal they sought to portray From the responsible realism of Hugh MacLennan and Gabrielle Roy to the fractious phantasmagorias of Jacques Ferron and Leonard Cohen Equivocal City traces the evolution of the Montreal novel with the aim of retrieving a shareable literary past Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world The Literary Vision of Gabrielle Roy Paula Gilbert Lewis, 1984 Canada's Storytellers | Les grands écrivains du Canada Andrew David Irvine, 2021-03-24 For over three quarters of a century the Governor General's Literary Awards have been awarded annually in a variety of evolving categories Fifteen Governors General have served as their patron The impressive list continues to grow apace between 1936 and 2018 the awards recognized 719 books in English and French and have been presented to 580 authors illustrators and translators This beautifully illustrated bilingual compendium presents the biographies of all 580 award laureates many accompanied by stunning archival portraits This is the final instalment in Andrew Irvine's remarkable and comprehensive research into what has become a touchstone of Canada's literary culture Together with Canada's Best and The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada A Bibliography this work provides readers with a definitive overview of this literary prize By itself Canada's Storytellers is an invaluable reading companion for anyone wanting to be introduced to many of our most influential authors illustrators and translators working in both French and English over the past decades It belongs on the shelf of every enthusiast of Canadian literature Bilingual edition Bibliography of McClelland and Stewart Ltd.
