A State-by-State History of Race and Racism in the United States Patricia Reid-Merritt, 2018-12-07 Providing chronologies of important events historical narratives from the first settlement to the present and biographies of major figures this work offers readers an unseen look at the history of racism from the perspective of individual states From the initial impact of European settlement on indigenous populations to the racial divides caused by immigration and police shootings in the 21st century each American state has imposed some form of racial restriction on its residents The United States proclaims a belief in freedom and justice for all but members of various minority racial groups have often faced a different reality as seen in such examples as the forcible dispossession of indigenous peoples during the Trail of Tears Jim Crow laws crushing discrimination of blacks and the manifest unfairness of the Chinese Exclusion Act Including the District of Columbia the 51 entries in these two volumes cover the state specific histories of all of the major minority and immigrant groups in the United States including African Americans Hispanics Asian Americans and Native Americans Every state has had a unique experience in attempting to build a community comprising multiple racial groups and the chronologies narratives and biographies that compose the entries in this collection explore the consequences of racism from states perspectives revealing distinct new insights into their respective racial histories 200 Women Geoff Blackwell, Ruth Hobday, 2017-10-31 200 incredible women 126 hours of interviews 16 000 photographs 5 questions A snapshot of female life around the globe This book includes interviews with 200 women from a variety of backgrounds takes you on a journey that s heartbreaking and uplifting Each woman shares her unique reply to the same five questions What really matters to you What brings you happiness What do you regard as the lowest depth of misery What would you change if you could and Which single word do you most identify with The variety of answers offers gifts of empowerment and strength inviting us to bring positive change at a time when so many are fighting for basic freedom and equality Interviewees include Jane Goodall conservation and animal welfare activist Margaret Atwood author and winner of The Booker Prize Roxane Gay author and feminist Ren e Montagne former host of NPR s Morning Edition Alicia Garza activist and co founder of Black Lives Matter Alfre Woodard award winning actor and activist Marian Wright Edelman head of the Children s Defense Fund Lydia Ko professional golfer and Olympian Dolores Huerta labor activist community organizer and co founder of the National Farm Workers Association Alice Waters chef author and food rights advocate Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie author and Macarthur Foundation fellow Each interview is accompanied by a photographic portrait resulting in a volume that is compelling in word and image and global in its scope and resonance This landmark book is published to coincide with an interactive website building on this remarkable ever evolving project 200 Women reminds us that there are no ordinary women Makes a wonderful birthday graduation going away gift or coffee table gift for every woman to encourage personal growth An empowering book for women teen girls or anyone looking for inspiration from luminaries across the world

Global Leadership for a Sustainable Future Linyuan Guo-Brennan,Maria Guajardo,Michael Guo-Brennan,Khalid Arar,Dionne Michelle Rosser-Mims,2025-09-29 Global Leadership for a Sustainable Future facilitates a global conversation about sustainability leadership theory and praxis in public and non profit sectors where leaders are challenged to manage global crisis make inclusive public policy act ethically in global affairs and adapt to digital disruption

Human Rights of Indigenous Peoples Cynthia Cohen,2023-09-20 Human Rights of Indigenous Peoples approaches this complex subject from two directions first the existing framework of international law both actual and potential as embodied in the relevant provisions of international conventions and the case law of international tribunals and second specific issues that arise between indigenous peoples in the United States Canada Latin America Scandinavia India and Australia and the states which exercise jurisdiction in their homelands This book by a leading authority on children s rights is a major contribution to an area of international law that attracts more attention each year and that many human rights advocates see as a critical testing ground for the genuineness of states humanitarian rhetoric Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

Religion and Human Rights Laura E. Alexander,2023-12-19 This book highlights perspectives from religious traditions worldwide in conversation with other communities who promote critique or question the idea of human rights It shows how human rights can provide a platform for dialogue among groups of people from diverse backgrounds who seek to address pressing issues of human well being In each chapter readers will be introduced to religious and human rights perspectives on specific global issues Intersecting with these issues the work examines history and philosophy of human rights for a generally accessible overview of human rights theory foundations and critique Specific case studies woven through the book will also help both students and advocates whether they are part of religious communities or not engage more deeply with particular areas of concern This volume is a useful resource for undergraduate students who are learning about the relationship between religion and human rights in a classroom for the first time as well as upper level and graduate students looking for a broad basis of knowledge and a starting point for digging deeper into specific areas of scholarship
