Conflict In Caledonia Conflict In Caledonia:

Conflict in Caledonia Laura DeVries, 2011-11-07 On 28 February 2006 the Six Nations of the Grand River blocked workers from entering a half built housing development in southern Ontario They renamed the land Kanonhstaton the protected place The protest drew national and international attention to the issue of Aboriginal land rights and sparked a series of ongoing events known as the Caledonia Crisis Laura DeVries powerful account of the dispute links the actions of police governmental officials and locals to entrenched non Aboriginal discourses about law landscape and identity It encourages non Aboriginal Canadians to reconsider their assumptions to view facts such as the rule of law as culturally specific notions that prevent truly equitable dialogue DeVries not only reveals the conflicting visions of justice held by various parties to the dispute she also seeks out possible solutions in alternative conceptualizations of sovereignty over land and law embedded in the Constitution

Violent Internal Conflicts in Asia Pacific Asvi Warman Adam, Dewi Fortuna Anwar, 2005 The last decade has seen an upsurge in violent internal conflicts in southern Thailand southern Philippines Sri Lanka and a number of regions in Indonesia and the Pacific Like terrorism and nuclear proliferation violent internal conflicts are increasingly being seen as a global security issue

National and International Conflicts, 1945-1995 Frank R. Pfetsch, Christoph Rohloff, 2013-10-11 The information flow about crises and conflicts is highly selective the media only focus on a few major conflicts at a time Many conflicts are neglected others soon forgotten after the fighting ends This book fills the gaps and offers a systematic overview of all crises and conflicts in and among states since 1945 and traces the global trends of conflict development Based on the broad empirical basis of the Conflict Simulation Model KOSIMO Pfetsch and Rohloff use an integrated approach to cover many forms and types of political conflicts both peaceful and violent

Unraveling Internal Conflicts in East Asia and the Pacific Jacob Bercovitch, Karl DeRouen Jr., 2011-02-07 Civil wars and internal conflicts pose the greatest threat to international peace and security in the twenty first century Nowhere is this problem more acute than in East Asia and the Pacific which has far more of its share of such conflicts Unraveling Internal Conflicts in East Asia and the Pacific Incidence Consequences and Resolution edited by Jacob Bercovitch and Karl DeRouen Jr is a book of originally commissioned essays on civil wars which provide a compelling area of inquiry Many of the Asia Pacific region s wars are very long such as in Myanmar some tend to recur also in Myanmar some involve religion Philippines Thailand and some Aceh Bougainville East Timor of the longest have ended in the last few years In short the region presents a variety of interesting dynamics that merit close attention in one volume The aim of Unraveling Internal Conflicts in East Asia and the Pacific is to provide an original look at these civil wars The unique feature of the book is that it brings a variety of perspectives together into one volume Bercovitch and DeRouen Jr do this in four sections The first titled Security and Internal Conflicts in the Region is an overview of conflict and conflict management in the region Section Two is called Features of Conflict in the Region Here the authors cover conflict contours including intractability conflict resolution recurrence and Islam Section Three External Involvement in Regional Conflicts focuses on third party intervention in regional conflicts The individual chapters cover mediation peacekeeping and other forms of third party involvement The final section ties the chapters together Unraveling Internal Conflicts in East Asia and the Pacific Incidence Consequences and Resolution edited by Jacob Bercovitch and Karl DeRouen Jr provides a fresh and comprehensive look at conflict in the part of the world where internal conflict is most prevalent Encyclopedia of Conflicts since World War II James Ciment, Kenneth Hill, 2012-12-06 This copiously illustrated A Z reference presents the most in depth information available about the various conflicts the world has endured local regional and international since World War II Some 142 conflicts are discussed and analyzed The Encyclopedia of Conflict since World War II with its coverage of all the countries of the world fills a critical need for clear comprehensive explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Entries end with an extensive bibliography and the encyclopedia includes maps chronologies and a general bibliography as well as an index designed to make the reader understand the correlation and relationships between individual conflicts The Pacific Islands Brij V. Lal, Kate Fortune, 2000-01-01 An encyclopaedia of information on major aspects of Pacific life including the physical environment peoples history politics economy society and culture The CD ROM contains hyperlinks between section titles and sections a library of all the maps in the encyclopaedia and a photo library A Global Chronology of Conflict Spencer C. Tucker, 2009-12-23 This monumental six volume resource offers engaging entries of major diplomatic military and political events driving world conflicts from ancient times to the present Now from ABC CLIO long regarded as a premier publisher of military history comes a monumental resource that encapsulates the entire scope of conflict among human societies Spanning nearly five millennia from the earliest documented fighting to the present A Global Chronology of Conflict From the Ancient World to the Modern Middle East provides a comprehensive survey of major military events With coverage that reaches beyond the battles this work examines the political and diplomatic forces driving world conflicts revolutions forced changes of governments international treaties and acts of aggression and terrorism Written by acclaimed military historian Spencer C Tucker these six chronologically organized volumes offer an accessible richly detailed timeline of military conflict across human history The concise entries cover all important events on the battlefield and in the corridors of power with special features highlighting hundreds of key leaders and weapon systems From specific data on casualties to coverage of evolving weapons technology to insightful analyses of the social impact of war A Global Chronology of Conflict is an essential resource for students researchers history buffs and general readers alike Post-Conflict Referendums and Peace Processes Kentaro Fujikawa, 2024-12-10 This book provides a comparative study of the impact of referendums on conflict resolution and peacebuilding in post conflict societies Post conflict referendums have increasingly been held as part of peace processes While policy makers are hopeful that these referendums serve peace and democracy the burgeoning literature on them has expressed significant reservations about their use particularly on territorial issues because referendums do not have mechanisms for compromise To gauge the actual impact of these referendums on peace processes the book systematically compares three post conflict referendums on self determination held with their respective central governments consent in Eritrea East Timor and Southern Sudan Relying on more than 70 elite interviews it examines 1 the rationales behind the decision to hold referendums 2 the referendums impact on resolving the original self determination conflicts and 3 their impact on post conflict peacebuilding inside the newly independent states The three case studies reveal various rationales behind such referendums and show that referendums play a limited albeit positive role in settling the original conflicts Furthermore holding referendums after civil wars has various positive negative and often unexpected impacts on domestic and international peacebuilding efforts inside newly independent states This book provides careful thorough and well balanced accounts of these referendums impact on peace processes This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies African and South East Asian politics and International Relations Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
