Nationalism and Conflict Management Eric Taylor Woods,Robert Schertzer,Eric Kaufmann,2013-09-13 Ethno national conflict is one of the central issues of modern politics Despite the emergence of approaches to managing it from nation building to territorial autonomy in recent years the application of these approaches has been uneven Old conflicts persist and new ones continually emerge The authors of this book contend that what is needed to drive forward the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management is a more nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism The book addresses this issue by linking theories of ethnicity and nationalism to theories of conflict management Its contributors share a common goal of demonstrating that a nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism can beneficially inform conflict management in theory and practice To do so they analyse both hot and cold conflict zones as well as cases that have been important in the development of the most widely used conflict management models The book is aimed at those interested in the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management as well as the study of ethnicity and nationalism It is well suited for undergraduate and advanced research students experts and policy makers This book was originally published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics

The European Union's Approach to Conflict Resolution Laurence Cooley,2018-10-09 This book investigates and explains the European Union s approach to conflict resolution in three countries of the Western Balkans Bosnia and Herzegovina Macedonia and Kosovo In doing so it critically interrogates claims that the EU acts as an agent of conflict transformation in its engagement with conflict affected states The book argues contrary to the assumptions of much of the existing literature that rather than seeking the transformation of conflicts the EU pursues a more conservative strategy based on the regulation of conflict through the promotion of institutional mechanisms such as consociational power sharing and decentralisation Drawing on discourse analysis of documents speeches and interviews conducted by the author with European Union officials and policy makers in Brussels and the case study countries the book offers a theoretically grounded methodologically rigorous and empirically detailed analysis of EU policy preferences of the ideas that underpin them and of how those preferences are legitimised This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners interested in ethnic conflict and conflict resolution the politics of the Balkans and the external and foreign policies of the EU

Decentralisation and the Management of Ethnic Conflict Aisling Lyon, 2015-10-30 Ethnic inequalities in divided societies can exacerbate social divisions and lead to conflict Reducing these inequalities could have a de-escalating effect yet there is little consensus on how this can be achieved most effectively and sustainably Decentralisation is held to improve inter-ethnic relations in multi-ethnic states by allowing territorially concentrated groups greater autonomy over their own affairs and the case of the Republic of Macedonia offers an example of the successes and failings of decentralisation Decentralisation and the Management of Ethnic Conflict offers new insight into the dynamics of conflict management through decentralisation using an in-depth case study of decentralisation in the Republic of Macedonia between 2005 and 2012 Guided by the concept of horizontal inequalities the volume identifies the factors which influenced the decision to devolve responsibilities to the municipalities after 2001 Taking an integrative approach to studying the political administrative and fiscal dimensions of decentralisation and its implementation the book investigates whether these institutional reforms have indeed contributed to the reduction of inequalities between Macedonia's ethnic groups and what the obstacles were in those areas in which decentralisation has not reached its full potential The key lesson of the Macedonian case is that attempts to solve internal self-determination conflicts through decentralisation will fail if local self-governance exists only in form but not in substance This book contributes to a more nuanced understanding of the challenges facing different forms of decentralisation in the long term and as such represents a significant contribution to Conflict Studies Development Studies and Political Science more generally

Collective Equality Limor Yehuda, 2023-04-27 This book develops Collective Equality as a new theoretical basis for the law of peace and for transitional justice

The Law and Politics of the Kosovo Advisory Opinion Marko Milanovic, Michael Wood, 2015-03-19 This volume is an edited collection of essays on various aspects of the 2010 Kosovo Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice The main theme of the book is the interplay between law and politics regarding Kosovo's independence generally and the advisory opinion specifically How and why did the Court become the battleground in which Kosovo's independence was to be fought out or not How and why did political arguments in favour of Kosovo's independence e.g. that Kosovo was a unique sui generis case which set no precedent for other secessionist territories change in the formal legal setting of advisory proceedings before the Court How and why did states supporting either Kosovo or Serbia choose to frame their arguments How did the Court perceive them What did the Court want to achieve and did it succeed in doing so And how was the opinion received and what broader implications did it have so far These are the questions that the book hopes to shed some light on To do so the editors assembled a stellar cast of contributors many of whom acted as counsel or advisors in the case as well a number of eminent scholars of politics and international relations whose pieces further enrich the book and give it an interdisciplinary angle The book thus tells the story of the case places it within its broader political context and so attempts to advance our understanding of how such cases are initiated litigated and decided and what broader purposes they may or may not serve Leadership,

Nation-building and War in South Sudan Sonja Theron, 2022-06-02 For over fifty years the people of South Sudan fought for the right to be citizens of an independent nation state When this goal was finally achieved however it quickly became evident that the South Sudanese nation was not nearly as cohesive as hoped The result has been a catastrophic civil war Spanning South Sudan's nation building struggle from its inception up until the current civil war this book challenges the notion that the continued violence of this process can be reduced to either identity difference or the fault of individual leaders Rather it uses the leadership process to understand the complex progressions and relationships that have characterised South Sudan's nation building trajectory The book argues that the core driving force behind the current conflict in South Sudan can be found not in ethnicity the resource curse or power struggle but in a set of destructive relationships that have fueled violence and oppression in the country for the better part of a century This cyclical leadership process has entrapped the country in an increasingly destructive and contradictory nation building process that continues to spiral and disintegrate Small Countries, Big Diplomacy Alounkeo Kittikhoun, Anoulak Kittikhoun, 2021-10-14 This book shows how small countries use big diplomacy to advance national interests and global agendas from issues of peace and security the South China Sea and nuclearization in Korea and human rights decolonization to development landlocked and least developed countries and environment hydropower development Using the case of Laos it explores how a small landlocked developing state maneuvered among the big players and championed causes of international concern at three of the world's important global institutions the United Nations UN the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and the Mekong River Commission MRC Recounting the geographical and historical origins behind Laos diplomacy this book traces the journey of the country surrounded by its five larger neighbors China Thailand Vietnam Myanmar and Cambodia and influenced by superpower rivalries from the Cold War to the post Cold War eras The book is written from an integrated perspective of a French educated Lao diplomat with over 40 years of experience in various senior roles in the Lao government leading major groups and committees at the UN and ASEAN and the theoretical knowledge and experience of an American trained Lao political scientist and international civil servant who has worked for the Lao government and the international secretariats of the UN and MRC These different perspectives bridge not only the theory practice divide but also the government insider outsider schism The book concludes with seven rules for small state diplomacy that should prove useful for diplomats statespersons policymakers and international civil servants alike It will also be of interest to scholars and experts in the fields of international relations and foreign policies of Laos the Mekong and Asia in general The Democracy Manifesto Wayne Waxman, Alison McCulloch, 2022-01-20 The Democracy Manifesto is about how to recreate democracy by replacing elections with government that is truly of by and for the people Written in engaging and accessible dialogue form the book argues that the only truly democratic system of government is one in which decision makers are selected randomly by sortition from the population at large operating much the way trial juries do today but 100% online enabling people to govern together even across great distances Sortition has a storied history but what sets The Democracy Manifesto apart is its comprehensive account of how it can be implemented not only across all sectors and levels of government but throughout society as well including the democratization of mass media corporations banks and other large institutions The resulting Sortitive Representative Democracy SRD is the true heir to ancient Greek democracy and the only means of ensuring we the people are represented by our fellow citizens rather than by the revolving groups of elites that dominate electoral systems In the process the book grapples with myriad hot topics including economic issues international relations indigenous rights environmentalism and more Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa Alan J. Kuperman, 2015-06-29 Each of Africa's countries has a different constitutional design is characterized by a unique culture and history and faces different stresses that threaten to undermine political stability Presenting the first database of constitutional design in all African countries along with seven original case studies Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa explores the types of domestic political institutions that can buffer societies from destabilizing changes that otherwise increase the risk of violence With detailed comparative studies of Burundi Ghana Kenya Nigeria Senegal Sudan and Zimbabwe contributing scholars identify key turning points at which a state's political institutions either mitigated or escalated the effects of economic environmental demographic and political shocks They find that stability can be promoted by various constitutional designs not only by accommodative institutions that encourage decentralization and multiculturalism but also by the integrative centralized designs that characterize the constitutions of most African countries The greatest danger may arise from partial or inequitable accommodation that can exacerbate societal tensions culminating in violence up to and including civil war and genocide Accordingly Constitutions and Conflict Management in Africa cautions against the typical international prescription for radical reform to replace Africa's existing constitutions with accommodative designs instead prescribing more gradual constitutional reform to strengthen liberal institutions such as strong judiciaries and independent electoral commissions This detailed and methodical volume provides vital lessons for fostering democracy and reducing civil conflict via constitutional reform in Africa and beyond Contributors Justin Orlando Frosini Gilbert M Khadiagala Alan J Kuperman Karly Kupferberg Eli Poupko Eghosa E Osaghae Andrew Reynolds Filip Reyntjens Arame Tall Hillary Thomas Lake Stefan Wolff I William Zartman
