Berkeley,1969 Campaign of Adowa and the Rise of Menelikfirst Italo-Ethiopian War G. F-H Berkeley,2015-10-15 The battle of Adowa was a crucial turning point in the history of African colonialism By the time it was fought in March 1896 the ancient Empire of Abyssinia today s Ethiopia in the horn of Africa was the last African state to have retained its independence and escaped the scramble for Africa that had seen the rest of the continent fall under the rule of rival European powers As a latecomer to the colonial feast Italy viewed Abyssinia under its Emperor Menelik II with greedy eyes The Italians attacked Abyssinia but struggled in a hostile terrain Urged on by Rome however the Italian Governor General Baratieri resolved on a full frontal attack against the Ethiopian army led by the Emperor himself He ordered three separate columns totalling almost 20 000 men to advance on three mountain peaks The Ethiopians outnumbering the Italians by some five to one were warned of the advance ambushed the confused Italians and completely routed them Adowa was the worst defeat ever inflicted on a European army by an African army The Italians took a belated revenge in 1935 when Mussolini invaded and briefly conquered the country This book is the only available account in English of an important and much neglected campaign

Armies of the Adowa Campaign 1896 Sean McLachlan,2011-09-20 In the late 19th century the new nation state of Italy was eager to join her European neighbours in creating an international empire and her eyes turned toward Africa as a source of potential colonies Securing a foothold in Eritrea on the Red Sea coast the Italians quickly became embroiled in a shooting war with the Ethiopians The war proved a disaster for the Italians who suffered three major defeats against the forces of Emperor Menelik s army including a horrendous massacre at Adowa the largest defeat of a colonial army prior to World War I This book looks at the campaign with an emphasis on the colourful uniforms worn by both sides The Campaign of Adowa and the Rise of Menelik G.
