De Juridische Titelprent In De 17e Eeuw Het Hof Van Holland:

Gateways to the Book Gitta Bertram, Nils Büttner, Claus Zittel, 2021-08-24 Gateways to the Book investigates the complex image text relationships between frontispieces and illustrated title pages on the one hand and texts on the other in European books published between 1500 and 1800 Although interest in this broad field of research has increased in the past decades many varieties of title pages and a great deal of printers and books remain as yet unstudied The fifteen essays collected in this volume tackle this field with a great variety of academic approaches asking how the images can be interpreted how the texts and contexts shape their interpretation and how they in turn shape the understanding of the text

Hugo Grotius Henk J.M. Nellen, 2014-11-10 Hugo Grotius 1583 1645 is the most famous humanist scholar of the Dutch Golden Age He wrote influential works on the laws of war and peace Dutch history and the unification of the churches His plea for a freedom of the seas in Mare liberum offered the Dutch East India Company a ready justification for the establishment of a trading empire in the East Indies As far as his daily duties left him any spare time he penned confidential learned and beautifully written letters This voluminous correspondence offers a trove of information on Grotius life and works and forms the basis of his newest biography which sketches a life caught in a fierce struggle for peace in Church and State
