

UNIT 1 – THINKING GEOGRAPHICALLY

geography = the study of where things are found on Earth's surface, why're located there

1.1 – Introduction to Maps

5 Themes of Geography

Theme	Definition	Examples
Absolute Location	an exact coordinate	40°04' 57" N 89° 51' 04" W, New York, NY, 10001
Relative Location	in relation with others	Next to the Whitehouse in Doha
Place	point are earth distinguished by features	Florida
Region	area defined by shared or local area features	South East USA
Movement	shift in features and its impact on area	Christianity from Europe → USA
Human-Environment Interaction	relationship between both and their impact	Floridians depend on oranges fields for food

Types of Maps

Topographic maps = show contour lines of elevation

- Reference maps = show general information about places and their boundaries
- Thematic maps = show density and distribution of quantitative data choropleth maps = use colors and shading to represent quantitative data excellent at showing density and its distribution dot distribution maps = uses dots with specific values or approximate locations used to show distribution (cluster/spread?)

graduated symbol maps = uses symbols of different sizes to represent values used to show quantitative data and differences between areas isoline maps = uses lines to connect points of equal value to depict variations in data help recognize patterns of relationships between area's geography and data cartograms = sizes of shapes are proportional to data being measured used to display the emphasis of how present a feature is flow line maps = express directions of geographic movement display migration patterns well

Geographical Knowledge Construction and Production Archie K. Deen, 2015-09-02 Geographical Knowledge Construction and Production Teacher and Student Perspectives is a readable and illuminating account of three high school classrooms in suburban Atlanta Georgia It challenges the narrow focus of the Advanced Placement AP programme as a tool for admission into colleges and universities in the United States The research provides insight into the College Board s AP programme and argues for teaching and learning that is transformative and geared toward equipping students with the skills and knowledge necessary to confront the challenges of the 21st century In particular it advocates for geographic education that is anchored in the structure of the subject teasing wherever possible the contradictions and tensions embedded in the complexities of facts relating to people and places This book is essential reading for professors and students of education teachers and students of AP courses parents administrators and state and federal agencies vested in the AP programme
