Confessions Revised And Updated The Making Of A Postdenominational Priest:

Confessions, Revised and Updated Matthew Fox, 2015-11-10 Matthew Fox's stirring autobiography Confessions reveals his personal intellectual and spiritual journey from altar boy to Dominican priest to his eventual break with the Vatican. Five new chapters in this revised and updated edition bring added perspective in light of the author's continued journey and his reflections on the current changes taking place in the Catholic church. Instead of living out his vows as a Dominican brother, Matthew Fox was expelled from the Order after 34 years by Cardinal Ratzinger who later became Pope Benedict XVI. Fox took this as a warning from the Church that henceforth thinkers should not think but get in line. It is from this anti-intellectual inquisition style mentality that the cover up of priestly pedophilia also grew as the Vatican appointed several generations of bishops and cardinals whose only criterion for selection was that they be uncritical yes men. Confessions tells the inside story of what it was like standing in front of the train when the Vatican was on the attack. It also reflects on the meaning of the encouragingly healthy papacy of Pope Francis but holds little hope for the institutional church. Rather, this book points to the main interest and accomplishments of the author's work to bring spirituality and prophetic warriorhood alive again in society and religion. Fox draws inspiration from great mystics of the past such as Hildegard of Bingen, a champion of the Divine Feminine, and Meister Eckhart, a profoundly mystical and ecumenical champion of those without a voice and the return of the archetype of the Cosmic Christ alongside the teachings of the historical Jesus and the bringing forth of the wisdom traditions from all the world's spiritual traditions to stand up for eco justice, gender justice, economic justice, and social justice.

Matthew Fox Fox, Matthew, 2022-03-23 Essential writings by Matthew Fox, theologian and leading proponent of creation spirituality.

Confessions Matthew Fox, 1996 Visionary activist and one of the most important religious thinkers and teachers of our time, Matthew Fox has devoted his career to unleashing the suppressed mystical and life-affirming traditions within Christianity. His theology of Creation Spirituality, notably the belief that we are born in original blessing, has reinvigorated the faith of countless Christians and earned him the headline-making censure of the Vatican who officially silenced Fox in 1989 and precipitated his dismissal by the Dominican Order in 1993. In this always compelling memoir, Fox, now an Episcopal priest, traces the roots of his radical theology from his 1950s childhood in Madison, Wisconsin, through formative years spent training in a late sixties Paris rocked by revolutionary fervor to taking on the Vatican which he likens to standing in front of a train to his most recent experiences as a leader of rave masses for urban young people. Written with his characteristic candor and insight, Confessions details Fox's spiritual, intellectual, political, and cultural evolution as an envelope pushing member of a generation bold enough to question many things and to seek spirituality over religion. Fox's story mirrors the questions and concerns of those millions of contemporary seekers with a passion for holiness, a yearning for a Christian spirituality committed to social justice, feminism, and environmentalism, and a desire for ritual that heals, celebrates, and honors the gifts of being in each of us. Always relentlessly ahead of his time, Fox embraces his role as a post denominational priest passionately exploring the present and future role of faith church and a spirituality grounded in the emphatic belief that finding God is still possible

The Strangest Way Robert E. Barron, 2002 Is Christianity a bland domesticated religion unthreatening and easy to grasp Or is it the most exotic unexpected and uncanny of religious paths For the mystics and saints and for Robert Barron who discovered Christianity through them it is surely the strangest way At its very center writes Barron is a God who comes after us with a reckless abandon breaking open his own heart in love in order to include us in the rhythm of his own life What could be more compelling

Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church Warren Anthony Kappeler, 2009 Communication has become an important theme and heuristic concept in practical theology for Roman Catholics during the ecumenical age Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church explains why the moral order is given priority in Vatican teaching about communication and the reasons for Catholic social teaching to make moral judgments about these new realities Attention is given in the book to the historical context of Vatican Councils I and II The first chapter shows that behind the pilgrim Church lies an emerging vision of the threefold ecclesial offices of priest prophet and king Chapter two examines the text and context of the Second Vatican Council's pastoral decree Inter Mirifica Chapter three provides a documented history of the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Social Communication and its teachings In chapter four we return to the threefold office and examine the contribution of Pope John Paul II It includes an analysis of how the politics of the Magisterium shapes Catholic social teaching Chapter five develops major tenets of a critical analysis of the communication of the post Vatican II Church attention is given to the discursive aspects of religious authority argumentation bureaucratization and market culture Chapter six takes a step toward examining the pragmatics of contemporary Vatican teaching For Roman Catholic moral theology religious ethics is now deeply concerned with providing moral teaching and guidance on ethical questions raised by the social conditions of globalization and media communication Communication Habits for the Pilgrim Church concludes that there are three basic sociological and theological aspects of the pilgrim Church These include a ritual approach to religious communication the generational experience of Catholics and their respective attitudes toward Church teaching and the important link in the faith's praxis between reflexivity and forming habits of communication

Growing a Healing Ministry Kathy Edmison, 2004 This book is based directly on the experience and wisdom of those who have established energy touch healing ministries in congregational settings

God is Green Bob Shore-Goss, 2016-10-28 At this time of climate crisis here is a practical Christian ecospirituality It emerges from the pastoral and theological experience of Reverend Robert Shore Goss who worked with his congregation by making the earth a member of the church by greening worship and by helping the church building and operations attain a carbon neutral footprint Shore Goss explores an ecospirituality grounded in incarnational compassion Practicing incarnational compassion means following the lived praxis of Jesus and the commission of the risen Christ as Gardener Jesus becomes the green face of God Restrictive Christian spiritualities that exclude the earth as an original blessing of God must expand This expansion leads to the realization that the incarnation of Christ has deep roots in the earth and the fleshly or biological tissue of life This book aims to foster ecological conversation in churches and outlines the following practices for congregations meditating on nature inviting sermons on green topics covenanting with the earth and retrieving the natural elements of the sacraments These practices help us recover ourselves as fleshly members of the earth and the network of life If we fall in love with God's creation says Shore Goss we will fight against climate change
