Charlottesville Cold Case Volume :

At the Dawn of the Cold War Jamil Hasanli, 2006-06-29 For half a century the United States and the Soviet Union were in conflict But how and where did the Cold War begin Jamil Hasanli answers these intriguing questions in At the Dawn of the Cold War He argues that the intergenerational crisis over Iranian Azerbaijan 1945 1946 was the first event that brought the Soviet Union to a confrontation with the United States and Britain after the period of cooperation between them during World War II Based on top secret archive materials from Soviet and Azerbaijani archives as well as documents from American British and Iranian sources the book details Iranian Azerbaijan s independence movement which was backed by the USSR the Soviet struggle for oil in Iran and the American and British reactions to these events These events were the starting point of the longer historical period of unarmed conflict between the Soviets and the West that is now known as the Cold War This book is a major contribution to our understanding of the Cold War and international politics following WWII

The Politics of Architectural Pedagogy in Iran Ali

Javid, 2024-08-26 The Politics of Architectural Pedagogy in Iran explores the evolution of architectural pedagogy during two significant socio political upheavals in Iran The White Revolution 1963 and the Islamic Revolution 1979 It examines how these transformative periods influenced the field providing valuable insights into the intersection of architectural education and broader socio political shifts in Iran By examining the critical role of education in achieving geopolitical objectives during the Cold War this book explores architectural pedagogy as an agent for resistance and revolution It highlights how architectural pedagogy not only reflects radical ideologies but also actively engages in socio political transformation The book uncovers how architectural pedagogy became one of the mechanisms to accomplish revolutionary goals This is evident in initiatives like the Pedagogical Revolution during the White Revolution 1963 aimed at modernizing educational institutions and the Revolutionary Pedagogy during the Islamic Revolution 1979 which sought to serve the masses and the religious revolutionary society In this way the book adds a new geopolitical perspective to the contemporary discourse of radical pedagogies This book explores the intricate connections between architectural pedagogy and politics through a transdisciplinary approach It analyzes original multilingual documents including political agendas cultural agreements curricula teaching methods student works exhibitions and conferences It will be of interest to architectural historians and architecture students particularly those interested in Global South development modernism architectural pedagogy international relations and Middle Eastern studies

Perspectives on Turkey's Multi-Regional Role in the 21st Century Dr Mujib Alam, 2015-07-15 This book dwells upon the various aspects of the Turkish foreign policy in the different regions of the world especially with the dawn of the twenty first century Turkey has attracted international attention due to a marked transformation in the country's domestic and external realms which in turn has led to an increased activism in its foreign policy actions Particularly Turkey's economic rise has fuelled the country's ambition and quest for a more significant role in international affairs These transformations have come about with the ascendance of the Adalet ve Kalkınma Partisi AKP or Justice Development Party JDP to power in 2002 Turkey under the AKP moved towards a new direction in the foreign policy and consequently endeavoured to play a larger role in West Asia Middle East the Balkans southern Mediterranean the Caucasus Central Asia Africa and Asia The country has emerged as a multi regional player having stakes and tractions on a range of issues in these regions The several discernible aspects of Turkey's involvement are dealt with in the contributions to this volume

A Cold Colonialism Tina Adcock, 2025-06-01 Exploration has long been pivotal to southern engagements with northern Canada but it is most often associated with the nineteenth century or earlier A Cold Colonialism offers the first extended examination of twentieth century exploration in the Canadian North Modern exploration helped southerners establish and maintain distinctive kinds of colonial and settler colonial power over northern Indigenous homelands Who explored the North between 1918 and 1965 What forms did exploration take What did it mean to explorers and others affected by it Tina Adcock focuses on four representative explorers with richly documented careers mining engineer George Douglas surveyor Guy Blanchet ethnologist Vilhjalmur Stefansson and filmmaker Richard Finnie Despite limited experience in and knowledge of the Canadian North these explorers helped southern militaries industries and governments exert control over northern peoples and their lands Each also claimed belonging in and authority over the North in ways that still resonate among southern settlers in Canada today
