Each form has been developed by the authors or other experienced internet law practitioners and has been used in actual transactions. Organized by type of transaction, each chapter includes a full agreement that illustrates the entire transaction as a seamless whole, as well as a variety of agreements for closely related issues. For each form, the authors provide a brief overview, an analysis of the different kinds of forms that relate to the topic, and a description of the form's applicability and use. Coverage includes: Developing the content portion of the website; Seeking intellectual property protection of website content; Resolving domain name disputes; Seeking to recover a domain name to which you have rights; Linking a website to other sites; Raising capital to develop and operate a site; Marketing the Internet site; Selling advertising on the internet site; And more. A "Practice Tips" section before each form identifies the "hot spots" that are likely to arise during the transaction and offers guidance on resolving these hotly negotiated provisions quickly. Detailed checklists assist in drafting the final agreement.
