contributors to this volume know each other personally having met at one or more of the international conferences that Professor Nugel organized and either hosted or co hosted At Munster his home university he has also been instrumental in establishing and heading a center for admirers of Huxley s work along with a fine library of Huxley materials including manuscripts and numerous first editions Series Human Potentialities Studien zu Aldous Huxley zeitgenossischer Kultur Studies in Aldous Huxley Contemporary Culture Vol 7 The Artist's Garden Jackie Bennett,2019-10-29 The Artist s Garden will feature up to 20 gardens that have inspired and been home to some of the greatest painters of history These gardens not only supplied the inspiration for creative works but also illuminate the professional motivation and private life of the artists themselves from Cezanne s house in the south of France to Childe Hassam at Celia Thaxter s garden off the coast off Maine Flowers and gardens have often been the first choice for artists looking for a subject A garden close to the artist s studio is not only convenient for daily material and ideas but also has the advantage of changing through the seasons and over time Claude Monet s Giverny was the catalyst for hundreds of great paintings by Monet and other artists each one different from the one before Sometimes a whole village becomes the focus for a colony of artists as at Gerberoy in Picardy and Skagen on the northernmost tip of Denmark This book is about the real homes and gardens that inspired these great artists gardens that can still be visited today The relationship between artist and garden is a complex one A few artists including Pierre Bonnard and his neighbour Monet were keen gardeners as much in love with their plants as their work while for others like Sorolla in Madrid his courtyard home was both a sanctuary and a source of ideas *Charleston Q. human houses have a long standing and profound connection not only with men and women but at a deeper level with the ways of representing man's world across its declinations of gender class and race Houses the perennial ubiquitous and silent background to our daily lives could many a tale unfold the tales of their inhabitants and in their relationships with others of the times they lived in of their configurations of the world as well as the visions and nightmares of the artists who created them This collection offers a comprehensive and transdisciplinary look at the paper houses of English Literature in the eighteenth and nineteenth century Among the configurations addressed the authors investigate the domestic spatialization of authority gendered houses narratives of household construction and deconstruction exotic mansions fin de siècle habitats haunted edifices and houses in detective and Gothic fiction
