Novels and Novelists University of Missouri. School of Mines and Metallurgy. Library, 1921 Dickens's Idiomatic Imagination Peter J. Capuano, 2023-12-15 Dickens's Idiomatic Imagination offers an original analysis of how Charles Dickens's use of low and slangular his neologism language allowed him to express and develop his most sophisticated ideas Using a hybrid of digital distant and analogue close reading methodologies Peter J Capuano considers Dickens's use of bodily idioms right hand man shoulder to the wheel nose to the grindstone against the broader lexical backdrop of the nineteenth century Dickens was famously drawn to the vernacular language of London's streets but this book is the first to call attention to how he employed phrases that embody actions ideas and social relations for specific narrative and thematic purposes Focusing on the mid to late career novels Dombey and Son David Copperfield Bleak House Great Expectations and Our Mutual Friend Capuano demonstrates how Dickens came to relish using common idioms in uncommon ways and the possibilities they opened up for artistic expression Dickens's Idiomatic Imagination establishes a unique framework within the social history of language alteration in nineteenth century Britain for rethinking Dickens's literary trajectory and its impact on the vocabularies of generations of novelists critics and speakers of English Dickens's London Julian Wolfreys, 2015-04-19

Contingencies and Masterly Fictions Lauren Watson, 2020-05-22 This book establishes deconstructive dialogues between texts which are generically chronologically and stylistically very different Each chapter aligns one of Dickens's later novels with a work of contemporary literature and a post structuralist theoretical text Working from the premise of Derrida's contre the relationship developed between these texts is not so much intertextual as countertextual each text re enacts the procedures of its counterparts simultaneously rearticulating and interrogating their status In this triangular mode of reading the contact zone between countertexts becomes the site on which new readings are generated readings that use the ambivalent relationship between writings to mark an analogous self difference within writing itself This productive self difference is described as a negotiation of the contradictory drives of signification a strategic management of the masterly and the contingent This book argues that Dickens s texts perform their negotiations in an acutely strenuous manner amplifying instability and exposing the means of literary production This lack of discipline proves contagious as the reader re enacts the text s spasmodic shifts between mastery and contingency As surrogate Dickensian readers in the countertextual economy the contemporary novel and post structuralist theory also display this instability an effect which allows this study to develop not only a theory of poetics but a poetics of theory This dramatic self difference is not simply restricted to writing however In later chapters this study examines how racial and gender identities are also marked by ambivalence and how their instability is exacerbated after contact with a Dickensian contre In conclusion the work is itself submitted to a Dickensian reading The author examines how the study s own manoeuvres have been exposed through contact with many of the texts analysed within it and how this dialogue deconstructs the ideal of academic writing

Charles Dickens's A Tale of Two Cities Ruth F. Glancy,2006 Often criticised for its melodramatic soap opera plot Dickens bold treatment of the violence and terrors of the French Revolution is still widely read and enjoyed today This text looks at critical themes in the novel as well as looking closely at the context in which it is set

Dickens, Death, and Christmas Robert L. Patten,2023 This study considers manifestations of Christmas in Dickens s work and explores how death time change charity love and religious belief provide a fresh basis on which to assess how Dickens conceived of Christmas and New Year
