 Peddlers Jason Vuic,2021-05-11 Florida has long been a beacon for retirees but for many the American dream of owning a home there was a fantasy That changed in the 1950s when the so called installment land sales industry hawked billions of dollars of Florida residential property sight unseen to retiring northerners For only 10 down and 10 a month working class pensioners could buy a piece of the Florida dream a graded home site that would be waiting for them in a planned community when they were ready to build The result was Cape Coral Port St Lucie Deltona Port Charlotte Palm Coast and Spring Hill among many others sprawling communities with no downtowns little industry and millions of residential lots In The Swamp Peddlers Jason Vuic tells the raucous tale of the sale of residential lots in postwar Florida Initially selling cheap homes to retirees with disposable income by the mid 1950s developers realized that they could make more money selling parcels of land on installment to their customers These swamp peddlers completely transformed the landscape and demographics of Florida devastating the state environmentally by felling forests draining wetlands digging canals and chopping up at least one million acres into grid like subdivisions crisscrossed by thousands of miles of roads Generations of northerners moved to Florida cheaply but at a huge price high pressure sales tactics begat fraud poor urban planning begat sprawl poorly regulated development begat environmental destruction culminating in the perfect storm of the 21st century
