Contemporary Social Issues in East Asian Societies: Examining the Spectrum of Public and Private Spheres Merviö, Mika Markus,2014-01-31 While the balance between private and public sectors are based primarily on the experiences of the wealthy societies in Western Europe and North America the global reach and increased political weight of East Asian economies is bound to influence other societies as well Contemporary Social Issues in East Asian Societies Examining the Spectrum of Public and Private Spheres focuses on modern highly developed East Asian societies and their social issues particularly ones that are related to family institution and health By examining the modernized global society and its connectedness this book is a vital resource for researchers students and academicians interested in the distinctive features connected with local social and cultural traditions of East Asian society

The Dynamics of Modern Asian Design Sandy Ng,Megha Rajguru,2025-10-16 Focusing on the late 20th century onward this book brings to light the ways in which design as a material form has underscored cultural social and economic changes across Asia The Dynamics of Modern Asian Design provides a deeper and more enhanced understanding of material culture in Asia through analysis of examples of ceramics electronic items fashion furniture interior design architecture and ornaments from across countries such as China Hong Kong India Japan and South Korea Authors explore the production of objects as agents in modern material life moving beyond their roles as commodities and addressing their values in a range of contexts and subjectivities Early chapters explore how ceramics and found objects are given innovative forms and meanings in their reincarnation and how the reinvention of material is critical when design is produced and valued Authors look at the intricate correlation between materials design practice and social change highlighting issues of cultural authenticity and tensions between local and global contexts They then interrogate the significance of visual appearance in material representations of modern women and religious artefacts exploring gender and religious representation through the analysis of magazines statues and objects of adornment The final section includes analysis of concrete urban design and electrical appliances specific to particular cultural and social contexts across modern and contemporary Asian cultures

Modern Asian Design D.J. Huppatz, 2018-02-22 Modern Asian Design provides a comprehensive introduction to the development of Asian design in the modern period both tracing historical threads and offering a theoretical framework within which to chart the history of design in Asia Rather than a singular Asian history this book presents a series of studies centred on trade routes colonial relationships regional networks and cross cultural exchanges Modern Asian Design builds on existing resources beyond design history in an effort to map the field focusing particularly on relations between Asia and the West and also across Asian design cultures Opening with a brief overview of trade and exchange networks in the 17th and 18th centuries the bulk of this study comprises analysis of the development of modern design in Asia during the later 19th and early 20th centuries a period of rapid modernisation The book's final two chapters bring these central ideas into a contemporary and highly relevant context

Singapore and Asia - Celebrating Globalisation and an Emerging Post-Modern Asian Civilisation Edward SW TI, TK Ti, 2012-04-06 SINGAPORE AND EAST ASIA CELEBRATING GLOBALIZATION AND EMERGENCE OF A POST MODERN ASIAN CIVILIZATION The economic achievements of peoples bear a close relationship with their cultures and level of development of their civilization Until the 16th century the major world civilizations were similar in stage of development in being feudalistic authoritarian and religious Since then with the Enlightenment the age of Reason and the control of nature through mastery of science Western civilization has taken a quantum leap in creating the modern industrial world and achieved wealth through colonization and globalization In stagnating for centuries Asians paid dearly at the feet of Western hegemony Nevertheless through the embrace of techno science whilst retaining traditional values Asians are now catching up fast East Asians have happily discovered that practicing their cultural heritage of Confucianism Taoism and Buddhism has been to their advantage This thesis has been reinforced by Communist China's phenomenal success in the global economy At the same time East Asia has found cultural consonance with the philosophy of Constructive post modernism This has been a movement in the West which questions the precepts of modernism its materialism and lack of spirituality its failure to achieve harmony in society and amongst nations and its excessive exploitation of Mother Nature Constructive post modernism movement has placed its biggest hope in the harmonious rise of Marxist China An East Asian champion of globalization has been Singapore Initially thought too small to exist as a country Singapore has surprised in reaching the ranks of a global city well within a life span SINGAPORE Celebrating globalization and fusion of civilizations Singapore is currently ranked 7th in position as a global city joining in wealth and influence New York London and Tokyo Caux Round Table a global index of social capital in 2009 ranked Singapore 14th among 200 countries Singapore was top in Asia and ahead of the United States and Britain Singapores exciting fusion of Western and Asian civilizations started in 1819 when the British East India Company set up a trading post at the sparsely populated island off the Southern tip of Malaya at the strategic Straits of Malacca When colonial initiatives made Malaya into the worlds biggest producer of rubber and tin the port city grew into the New York of Malaya Following the usual rhetoric of newly independent countries against colonial exploitation the Republic of Singapore was pragmatic in remaining closely aligned to the Western world The elevation of English to be the first language of instruction in all schools not only helped unify multi lingual Singapore but also facilitated linkage with the global economy and progress in techno science English speaking workers together with other positive factors such as hard work ethics freedom from labor strikes and corruption attracted MNC investment Since the 1960s Singapore has become the biggest MNC hub in the world In 2007 over 7000 foreign companies account for 15 billion or 85% of fixed asset investment and 44.5% of the GDP Besides MNCs Western talents in top level management finance academia and research have all been recruited International Advisory Panels IAP continue to assist Government and statutory bodies Unlike much of Asia a key element in Singapores success has been winning the war against corruption through political will tough anti corruption laws and paying ministers and civil servants well Transparency International has consistently ranked island State as one of the least corrupt countries in the world The livability of Singapore has for past decades been significantly improved by clearance of slumps clean tree lined and crime free streets decent housing and access to high quality education and healthcare Architectural legacy
