Contemporary Feminist Theory And Activism Six Global Issues Critical Issues In Philosophy:

Contemporary Feminist Theory and Activism Wendy Lynne Lee, 2009-12-30 In this book Wendy Lynne Lee sets out to demonstrate how feminist theorizing is relevant to issues that may seem less directly about the status and emancipation of women but that are vital she argues to forming connections with other important twenty first century movements Lee shows how a feminist approach to crafting these connections can shed light on the economic disparity and entrenched gender inequality of global markets the role technology plays in our conception of reproductive rights sexual identity and gender the rise of religious fanaticism and the relationship between our conceptions of gender nonhuman animals and the environment Timely politically passionate and forcefully argued Contemporary Feminist Theory and Activism will reinvigorate feminist thought for the twenty first century

Climate Crisis and the Kleptocene Wendy Lynne Lee, 2024-12-15 In Climate Crisis and the Kleptocene On The Commodification of Sentience the author argues that capitalism is not merely a system of economic exchange but an ideology of value that in virtue of the existential demand for permanent growth must reduce other forms of value moral civic and aesthetic to exchange value The ontology of capital accumulation can neither afford nor accede to any exemption to its fundamentally kleptocratic logic of commodification Thus among its most significant originary acts is to nullify the value of sentience as an obstacle to commodification A number of well known environmental writers including David Wallace Wells Michael Mann Gary Francione and Jason Moore however miss this critical element of the ontology of capital and thereby end up either defending reformist incarnations of capital conquest or as Andreas Malm puts it offering hybridist and ultimately self defeating accounts of the history of capitalism Malm s own realist account however does not go quite far enough to see beyond human chauvinism down to the roots of the logic of commodification namely that nothing sentient or non sentient living or nonliving organic or inorganic is irreducible to the exchange value of an ideology whose essence is grow or die

Eco-Nihilism Wendy Lynne Lee, 2017-02-22 If we were to ask what is the root cause of our current and unprecedented environmental crisis climate change many particularly on the progressive Left would refer to the excesses of capitalism and they d be right In Eco Nihilism The Philosophical Geopolitics of the Climate Change Apocalypse Wendy Lynne Lee demonstrates that there are no versions of conquest capital compatible with the fact of a finite planet and that a logic whose operating premise is growth is destined to not only exhaust our planetary resources but also generate profound social injustice and geopolitical violence in its pursuit. Nonetheless, it is clear that the violence and injustice of capital is selective: some benefit greatly while others are subjugated to its pathological drive to profit. Hence Lee argues that any comprehensive analysis of what Jason Moore has dubbed the Capitalocene must include an equally probing account of human chauvinism that is the axes along which capital is supplied with resources and labor. Defined in terms of race, sex, gender, and species, these axes come ready-made to the advantage of capitalist commodification. Without an understanding of how and why humanity will remain doomed to settling for a sustainably unjust world as opposed to realizing a just and desirable one, indeed on our current trajectory we may not even achieve the sustainable. The introduction of climate change into the mix of environmental deterioration, the ever-widening economic gap between global North and global South, and the accelerating violence of terrorism, civil war, and human slavery make of a warming planet a combustible world. The only way out requires ending the myth of endless resources, a rejection of climate change denial, and a radical revaluation of human-centeredness not as a locus of power but as an opportunity to take moral and epistemic responsibility for a world whose biotic diversity and ecological integrity make the struggle to realize it worthwhile. This solution demands not only an end to capitalism but the deliberate reclamation of value, aesthetic, moral, and civic, and a radical transformation of both personal and collective conscience. Lee appeals to the experiential aesthetics of John Dewey and the feminist concept of the standpoint of the subjugated. She argues for a version of the precautionary principle informed by an environmentally and socially responsible concept of the desirable future as the clearest path away from the precipice.

Heidegger, Reproductive Technology, & The Motherless Age Dana S. Belu, 2017-03-18 Dana S. Belu combines Heidegger's phenomenology of technology with feminist phenomenology in order to make sense of the increased technicization of women's reproductive bodies during conception, pregnancy, and birth. Introducing Religion Robert Ellwood, 2016-10-14

Introducing Religion 4^e explores the different ways of looking at religion in the twenty-first century. A broad overview to religious studies as a discipline introduces students to the various subjects of religion. Introducing Religion teaches readers how to think in academic religious studies and its main areas, including sociology of religion, psychology of religion, history of religion, religion and art, ethics, and more. The fourth edition has been expanded with new chapters exploring topics of contemporary interest: myth, spiritual paths, religion and popular culture, religion in the computer age, religion and war. Contemporary topics engage today's students relating the topics to the changing world around them. In a Barbie World

Anna Gotlib, Claire Elise Katz, 2025-02-28 In a Barbie World Barbie as Narrative Symbol and Cipher brings together a group of global scholars representing different disciplines and identities to examine the myriad themes that emerge from the Greta Gerwig film Barbie. In 2023, Barbie unexpectedly became the highest-grossing film of the year and surprised audiences with its perceptive exploration of feminism and feminist philosophies. Taking an inclusive interdisciplinary approach, this collection is the first book to undertake a philosophical and academic consideration of Barbie This collection of essays approaches the film from different disciplinary perspectives considering it simultaneously as a cultural phenomenon and as an academic text Chapters cover a range of topics including patriarchy consumerism capitalism colonialism sexual identity race recognition relationships mothers and daughters queerness girl power feminism and of course its theatre rival Oppenheimer In a Barbie World Barbie as Narrative Symbol and Cipher offers an accessible yet scholarly contribution to the fields of gender studies political theory philosophy film studies bioethics and education among others It will be of value to students of these subjects at both undergraduate and graduate level as well as to broader audiences who are interested in Barbie and its themes The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Convergences Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, Kathryn Sophia Belle, Donna-Dale L. Marcano, 2010-10-01 A range of themes race and gender sexuality otherness sisterhood and agency run throughout this collection and the chapters constitute a collective discourse at the intersection of Black feminist thought and continental philosophy converging on a similar set of questions and concerns These convergences are not random or forced but are in many ways natural and necessary the same issues of agency identity alienation and power inevitably are addressed by both camps Never before has a group of scholars worked together to examine the resources these two traditions can offer one another By bringing the relationship between these two critical fields of thought to the forefront the book will encourage scholars to engage in new dialogues about how each can inform the other If contemporary philosophy is troubled by the fact that it can be too limited too closed too white too male then this groundbreaking book confronts and challenges these problems

Girl Power? Sarah Bellows-Blakely, 2025-05-06 An examination of how when and why austerity capitalism and strands of feminism became intertwined and why girl focused programs have been at the heart of international policymaking Girl focused education programs have long been at the heart of international policymaking when girls access to education is ensured the reasoning goes they are more likely to turn into productive adults who can drive economic growth These ideas combine strands of feminism and capitalism that have a specific and understudied origin In this book historian Sarah Bellows Blakely shows how a doctored study of girls education in East and Southern Africa led to the creation of international norms in the United Nations that would go on to guide policymaking on women's rights and economic growth promoting neoliberal feminist policy at the expense of other forms of gender based justice Focusing on the growth of free market feminism and girl focused economic development planning through the relationship between UNICEF and the Nairobi based NGO FEMNET Bellows Blakely reveals how their joint efforts set the blueprints for linked movements of economic development and women's rights that are still ongoing Through a narrative of the UNICEF FEMNET lobbying campaign Bellows Blakely shows how multiple contested girl focused visions of economic programming and gender justice became selectively erased in favor of an approach to global policy centered on the free market construction and strategic deployment of the African girl child Developments Erica Burman, 2020-07-28 How does developmental psychology connect with what used to be called the developing world What do cultural representations indicate about the contemporary politics of childhood How is concern about child sexual exploitation linked to wider securitization anxieties In other words what is the political economy of childhood and how is this affectively organized This new edition of Developments Child Image Nation fully updated is a key conceptual intervention and resource reflecting further on the contexts and frameworks that tie children to national and international agendas A companion volume to Burman's Deconstructing Developmental Psychology third edition 2017 this volume helps explain why questions around children and childhood including their safety welfare their interests abilities sexualities and their violence have so preoccupied the late twentieth and twenty first centuries showing how the frames for these concerns have extended beyond their Euro US contexts of origination In this completely revised edition Burman explores changing debates and contexts offering resources for interpreting continuities and shifts in the complex terrain connecting children and development Through reflection on an increasingly globalised marketised world that prolongs previous colonial and gendered dynamics in new and even more insidious ways Developments analyses the conceptual paradigms shaping how we think about and work with children and recommends strategies for changing them Drawing in particular on feminist and post development literatures as well as original and detailed engagement with social theory it illustrates how and why reconceptualising notions of individual and human development including those informing models of children's rights and interests is needed to foster more just and equitable forms of professional practice with children and their families Burman offers an important contribution to a set of urgent debates engaging theory and method policy and practice across all the disciplines that work with or lay claim to children's interests A persuasive set of arguments about childhood culture and professional practice Developments is an invaluable resource to teachers and students in psychology childhood studies and education as well as researchers in gender studies
