Contemporary Investments Douglas Heath, 1997-10-01 □□□□□□□□ Frank K. Reilly, 2002 Contemporary Investments Douglas Heath, Janis Zaima, 1998 Investments Herbert B. Mayo, 1997 Covering the same topics found in more advanced level texts Investments incorporates minimal math and is much more student friendly resulting in an increased excitement for and understanding of the basic investment course material It is the text of choice for the College of Financial Planning It includes a strong focus on the individual financial planner and features a Financial Advisor AEs Investment Case at the end of each chapter These short cases illustrate how text material applies to real investment decisions Financial calculators are introduced and utilized throughout the text with explanations employing both interest tables and the calculator It is also ideal for non majors courses Financial Institutions, Investments, and Management Herbert B. Mayo, 1998 The goal of this text is to introduce the business major and particularly the non finance major to the broad field of finance rather than just corporate finance Mayo s is one of the only books that attempts coverage of all three major areas of finance while maintaining a level appropriate for introductory courses in both 2 year and 4 year schools Since many students will have only this exposure to the subject the text gives them a working knowledge of all aspects of introductory finance An Introduction to Derivatives Don M. Chance, 1995 Provides a solid foundation in the principles of derivatives Financial Management Eugene F. Brigham, Louis C. Gapenski, Michael C. Ehrhardt, 1999 Intended for use in an introductory finance course this textbook emphasizes the skills needed to make good financial decisions It outlines fundamental concepts and provides detailed discussions of topics like securities corporate valuation strategic investment and working capital management Two CD ROMs contain displays tools kits models files spreadsheets and reference materials Brigham teaches at the University of Florida Ehrhardt teaches at the University of Tennessee Distributed by ISBS c Book News Inc Fundamentals of Financial Management Eugene F. Brigham, Joel F. Houston, 1998 When the book was first published more than 20 years ago our intent was to write an introductory finance text that students could understand Today the book has become the leading undergraduate finance text The book is intended for use in the introductory finance course The key chapters can be covered in a one term course or supplemented with cases and some outside readings used in a two term course Pref Books in Series , 1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Investing in Corporate Bonds and Credit Risk F. Hagenstein, A. Mertz, J. Seifert, 2004-10-01 Investing in Corporate Bonds and Credit Risk is a valuable tool for any corporate bond investor All the most recent developments and strategies in investment in corporate bonds are analyzed included with qualitative and quantitative approaches A complete and up to date investment process is developed through the book using many examples taken from banking practice The growing significance of derivative instruments and credit diversification to bond investors is also analyzed in detail
