Documentary and

Stereotypes Catalin Brylla, 2023-08-22 This book studies how documentaries and factual media in general can contribute to the reduction of social stigma and prejudice. It adopts models from social psychology, media studies and cultural studies and is intended for scholars and media makers who aim to increase social inclusion and diversity by deconstructing harmful boundaries between social groups. Such boundaries may be based on the stereotyping of ethnicity, culture, age, disability, gender and sexual orientation, for example. The first part of the book outlines the functionality of stereotypes as essential processes for social cognition both in real life and during documentary viewing. The second part establishes a classification system for stigmatising media stereotypes and formulates a methodology based on critical discourse analysis to analyse them in narrative and audio-visual representations. The third and final part of the book conceptualises a set of methodologies to reduce stigmatising stereotypes. These methodologies are based on 1) representations that prompt perspectival alignment with screen characters and 2) the perceived salience of multiple intersecting social identities.

Documentary Filmmaking in Contemporary Brazil Gustavo Procopio Furtado, 2019 This book examines the vibrant field of documentary filmmaking in Brazil from the transition to democracy in 1985 to the present. Marked by significant efforts toward the democratization of Brazil's highly unequal society, this period also witnessed the documentary's rise to unprecedented vitality in quantity, quality and diversity of production, which includes polished auteur films as well as rough-hewn collaborative works. Films made in major metropolitan regions as well as in indigenous villages and in remote parts of the Amazon intimate first-person documentaries as well as films that dive headfirst into struggles for social justice. The transformations of Brazilian society and of filmmaking coalesce and become entangled in this cinema's preoccupation with archives. Historically linked to the exercise and maintenance of power, the concept of the archive is critical for the documentary as a cultural practice that preserves images from the present for the future, unearths and repurposes visual materials from the past and is historically invested in filmic images as records of the real. Contemporary films incorporate, reflect on and rework a variety of archives such as documents produced by official institutions, ethnographic images, home movies and photo albums and engage not only with what is preserved but also with lacunas in the record and with alternate forms of remembering, retrieving and transmitting the past. Through its interaction with archives, this book argues the contemporary documentary reflects on and intervenes in the distribution of visibilities and invisibilities, centers and margins, silences and speech, living memory and its preservation in the record, thus locating the documentary on archival borders that concern Brazilian society and filmmaking alike.

Hypermodern Documentary Discourse in Cinema Jarmo Valkola, 2022-08-25 This book explores the unique phenomenon of hypermodern documentary discourse and its connections inside the development of documentary film. It provides an understanding of the ramifications of the theoretical and aesthetic qualities surrounding documentaries and focuses specifically on the audiovisual analysis of hypermodern documentaries, drawing from the thought of the French philosopher Gilles Lipovetsky. The book investigates these ideas in the context of film and media studies and cognitive and phenomenological perspectives offering a way to understand the main ideas subjects and markers of hypermodern theoretical formulae and the conjecture of aesthetics in documentaries Telling Migrant Stories Esteban E.

Loustaunau, Lauren E. Shaw, 2021-11-02 This book is a collection of edited theoretical essays on the power of contemporary documentary film to voice the social agency of Latin American immigrants to the United States and Europe and to reveal some of the global systemic conditions that generate mass migrations and lead to the dehumanization of undocumented immigrants Linking the function of documentary to represent immigrants as performing agents whose voices generally are not heard publicly this volume also features interviews with prominent documentarians whose films and videos respond to conditions of migration from a variety of perspectives Aesthetics of Religion Alexandra K. Grieser, Jay

Johnston, 2017-12-18 This volume is the first English language presentation of the innovative approaches developed in the aesthetics of religion The chapters present diverse material and detailed analysis on descriptive methodological and theoretical concepts that together explore the potential of an aesthetic approach for investigating religion as a sensory and mediated practice In dialogue with yet different from other major movements in the field material culture anthropology of the senses for instance it is the specific intent of this approach to create a framework for understanding the interplay between sensory cognitive and socio cultural aspects of world construction The volume demonstrates that aesthetics as a theory of sensory knowledge offers an elaborate repertoire of concepts that can help to understand religious traditions These approaches take into account contemporary developments in scientific theories of perception neuro aesthetics and cultural studies highlighting the socio cultural and political context informing how humans perceive themselves and the world around them Developing since the 1990s the aesthetic approach has responded to debates in the study of religion in particular striving to overcome biased categories that confined religion either to texts and abstract beliefs or to an indisputable sui generis mode of experience This volume documents what has been achieved to date its significance for the study of religion and for interdisciplinary scholarship

Honeyland Jaimie Baron, Kristen Fuhs, 2022-03-09 The fourth volume in the Docalogue series this book explores the significance of the documentary Honeyland 2019 in relation to documentary ethics the representation of human and animal relations environmental studies genre theory and documentary distribution The film focused on a Turkish speaking woman in Macedonia who cultivates bees to produce honey through an ancient and environmentally sustainable method raises important questions about the place of humans and economic activity within the broader ecosystem The documentary also prompts critical reflection about the relationship between observation and storytelling how the film festival circuit allows certain films to reach a wide audience the ethics of ethnographic representation the relationship between human and insect life and to what extent film can allow us to experience others life worlds By combining five distinct critical perspectives on a single documentary this book acts both as an intensive scholarly treatment of the film and as a guide for how to analyze theorize and contextualize a documentary text This book will be of interest to students and scholars of documentary studies as well as those studying film and media more broadly
