Creating Women's Theology Monica A. Coleman, Nancy R. Howell, Helene Tallon Russell, 2011-09-22 Creating Women's Theology engages women's questions Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought What kind of belief follows women's criticism of traditional Christianity Creating Women's Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist thought represents a theology that women have created This volume offers an introduction to process and feminist theologies before presenting selections from canonical works in the field with study questions This volume includes voices from Christianity Judaism goddess religion the Black church and indigenous religions Creating Women's Theology invites new generations of undergraduate seminary and university graduate students to the methods and insights of process relational feminist theology Creating Women's Theology Monica A. Coleman, Nancy R. Howell, Helene Tallon Russell, 2011-09-22 Creating Women's Theology engages women's questions Can women from different religious traditions engage one theological approach Can one philosophical approach support feminist religious thought What kind of belief follows women's criticism of traditional Christianity Creating Women's Theology offers a portrait of how some women have found room for faith and feminism For the last twenty five years women religion scholars have synthesized process philosophy with their feminist sensibilities and faith commitments to highlight the value of experience the importance of freedom and the interdependence of humanity God and all creation Cutting across cultural and religious traditions process relational feminist thought represents a theology that women have created This volume offers an introduction to process and feminist theologies before presenting selections from canonical works in the field with study questions This volume includes voices from Christianity Judaism goddess religion the Black church and indigenous religions Creating Women's Theology invites new generations of undergraduate seminary and university graduate students to the methods and insights of process relational feminist theology Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1997 Making a Way Out of No Way Monica A. Coleman, 2008 A womanist theology of change Integrates postmodern thought womanist theology and process philosophy Nevertheless, We Persist Carbine, Rosemary, P., 2023-12-08 Examines the impact of feminist and womanist theologies on public theology She Who Changes C. Christ, 2016-04-15 Can we re imagine divine power as deeply related to the changing world Can we re imagine the creation of the world as an ongoing process of co creation in which every individual from particles of atoms to human beings plays a part Can we re imagine Goddess God as the most relational of all relational beings Can we re imagine the world as the body of Goddess God If we can then we can understand the deeper meaning of female images of divine power including Goddess God

She Sophia and Shekhina Many traditional understandings of divine power begin with thinly disguised rejections of the female body and connection to the natural world Women theologians from Jewish Christian Goddess and other traditions are re imagining divine and human power as embodied embedded in a changing world and deeply related to all beings in the web of life Drawing on the work of process philosopher Charles Hartshorne whose insights deserve a wider hearing Carol P Christ offers intellectual foundations for deeply held feelings about the meanings of female images of divine power Her gift is the ability to make complex ideas seem simple and radically new ideas seem familiar This book is addressed to everyone who has ever wondered about the implications of re imagining God as female Introducing Womanist Theology Stephanie Y. Mitchem, 2002 The author describes how theology by women of color is rooted in their life experiences and how these women construct theology Introducing Feminist Theology Lisa Isherwood, Dorothea McEwan, 1993 The second edition of this highly popular introduction includes a new preface and each chapter has been revised to keep it as up to date as possible Introducing Feminist Theology remains a lively and stimulating first read for anyone embarking on feminist theology as well as a first rate resource for those wishing to refresh their acquaintance with it Despite claims in some quarters that feminism has been surpassed by gender this book explains how vital a feminist agenda remains and how much is still to be done both at the theological and the practical level to transform Christianity from two centuries of male gendered discourse and ecclesiastical structure into a religion that adequately reflects the life of modern women
