Character Reference Letter For Wrestling Coach:

A History of Intercollegiate Wrestling in the United States of America Keith Edward Bowen, 1952 Modern Sport Ethics Angela Lumpkin, 2016-12-12 The descriptions and examples of unethical behaviors in sport in this book will challenge readers to rethink how they view sport and question whether participating in sport builds character especially at the youth and amateur levels Sport potentially can teach character as well as social and moral values but only when these positive concepts are consistently taught modeled and reinforced by sport leaders with the moral courage to do so The seeming moral crisis threatening amateur and youth sport evidenced by athletes coaches and parents alike making poor ethical choices and ongoing scandals regarding performance enhancing drug use by professional athletes make sports ethics a topic of great concern This work enables readers to better understand the ethical challenges facing competitive sport by addressing issues such as gamesmanship doping cheating sportsmanship fair play and respect for the game A compelling read for coaches sport administrators players parents and sport fans the book examines specific examples of unethical behaviors many cases of which occur in amateur and educational sports to illustrate how these incidents threaten the perception that sport builds character It identifies and investigates the multiple reasons for cheating in sport such as the fact that the rewards for succeeding are so high and the feeling of athletes that they must behave as they do to level the playing field because everyone else is cheating being violent taking performance enhancing drugs or doing whatever it takes to win Readers will gain insight into how coaches and sport administrators can achieve the goals for youth interscholastic intercollegiate and Olympic sport by stressing moral values and character development as well as see how specific recommendations can help ensure that sport can serve to build character rather than teach bad behavior in the pursuit of victory Black Issues in Higher Education ,1988 No Quitters Here Brenda M. Woodward, 2002 An inspiring account of high school football and the power of a dream Players would not compromise their goal to play in the Pontiac Silverdome a place where dreams come true and state championships are won Their quest created a ten year winning streak 1988 1998 Faithful fans watched them play on Friday nights unaware of their serious challenges You ll laugh with them cry with them and come to understand how their high school football experience impacted their lives as well as their futures Coach-makers' International Journal ,1909 Scholastic Coach ,1967 Information Legislative Service ,2002 Norwich University Record ,1923 A magazine intended for the alumni and friends of Norwich University Modern Sports Ethics Angela Lumpkin, 2009 An examination of both ethical and unethical behaviors in sports designed to help readers analyze the notion that participating in sports builds character Is it possible to teach lasting values through sports With coverage that explores the origins of sports ethical theories as applied to sports and key moral issues affecting sports throughout history to the present day Modern Sports Ethics A Reference Handbook surveys the realm of athletics and its potential as an arena for character development Taking examples from a variety of areas in nonprofessional athletics including Little League baseball the Tour de France and the Olympic Games Modern Sports Ethics is an eye opening yet evenhanded look at both the positive and negative impact sports have on society The book focuses on a number of specific problems and controversies including commercialization performance enhancing drugs racism sexism physical violence and psychological ploys and deliberate rule breaking behavior Biographical sketches of individuals who have made significant contributions in shaping sports ethics including John Wooden Arthur Ashe and James Naismith A data and documents chapter that provides context for the examination of specific challenges in sports such as those faced by young athletes and female athletes

Legal Problems of Religious and Private Schools Ralph D. Mawdsley, 2000 This book addresses the legal problems faced by nonpublic schools It is intended to help teachers and administrators recognize potential legal difficulties and to assist educators in developing preventive strategies to resolve problems before the legal system becomes involved The text is divided into six chapters 1 Tort Liability 2 Institution Student and Faculty Relationships Constitutional and Contractual Considerations 3 Governing Board Responsibilities and Liability 4 Governmental Regulation of Nonpublic Schools 5 Federal Anti Discrimination Legislation and 6 Special Problems Topics covered include charitable immunity exculpatory clauses legal requirements defenses to tort liability self defense and restraint field trips medical needs defamation invasion of privacy corporal punishment child abuse and school liability for sexual misconduct by employees constitutional constraints contractual constraints search and seizure communicable diseases pregnancies ascending liability fiduciary relationships standard of care donors and gifts areas of vicarious liability indemnification liability insurance closing a school access to tax exempt bonds and other public funds defining the mission of a religious school schools with or without a religious nexus home instruction religious belief and practice statutes based or not based on federal assistance immigration bankruptcy and family educational rights The book includes an index and a table of cases arranged alphabetically Contains over 1 300 footnotes RJM
