Personality, Character, and Intelligence Malcolm Gladwell, 2009-10-20 StartFragment What is the difference between choking and panicking Why are there dozens of varieties of mustard but only one variety of ketchup What do football players teach us about how to hire teachers What does hair dye tell us about the history of the 20th century In the past decade Malcolm Gladwell has written three books that have radically changed how we understand our world and ourselves The Tipping Point Blink and Outliers Now in What the Dog Saw he brings together for the first time the best of his writing from TheNew Yorker over the same period Here is the bittersweet tale of the inventor of the birth control pill and the dazzling inventions of the pasta sauce pioneer Howard Moscovitz Gladwell sits with Ron Popeil the king of the American kitchen as he sells rotisserie ovens and divines the secrets of Cesar Millan the dog whisperer who can calm savage animals with the touch of his hand He explores intelligence tests and ethnic profiling and hindsight bias and why it was that everyone in Silicon Valley once tripped over themselves to hire the same college graduate Good writing Gladwell says in his preface does not succeed or fail on the strength of its ability to persuade It succeeds or fails on the strength of its ability to engage you to make you think to give you a glimpse into someone else s head What the Dog Saw is yet another example of the buoyant spirit and unflagging curiosity that have made Malcolm Gladwell our most brilliant investigator of the hidden extraordinary EndFragment

Harrison,2015-01-14 What could be the point of teaching such works of bygone cultural and literary inheritance as Cervantes Don Quixote and Shakespeare s The Merchant of Venice in schools today This book argues that the narratives and stories of such works are of neglected significance and value for contemporary understanding of human moral association and character However in addition to offering detailed analysis of the moral educational potential of these and other texts the present work reports on a pioneering project recently pursued by the Jubilee Centre for Character and Virtues concerned precisely with the use of these and other stories for moral and character education in schools The success of the Knightly Virtues project is an inspiring story in its own right and should therefore be of enormous interest to all schools teachers and parents rightly concerned with this all important aspect of their children s educational development Making ALL Kids Smarter John DeLandtsheer,2010-11-09 A hands on guide for challenging ALL kids to think create and aspire John DeLandtsheer brings 40 years of experience to this motivating resource that shows teachers how to raise the bar for all students Included are strategies for differentiating instruction within the general classroom to challenge all learners with more rigorous content showing teachers how to Optimize learning by applying the six components of a brain friendly
