Cruising Modernism Class And Sexuality In American Literature And Social Thought:

Cruising Modernism Michael Trask, 2018-05-31 Modern society Michael Trask argues in this incisive and original book chose to couch class difference in terms of illicit sexuality Trask demonstrates how sexual science's concept of erotic perversion mediated the writing of both literary figures and social theorists when it came to the innovative and unsettling social arrangements of the early twentieth century Trask focuses on the James brothers in a critique of pragmatism and anti-immigrant sentiment shows the influence of behavioral psychology on Gertrude Stein's work uncovers a sustained reflection on casual labor in Hart Crane's lyric poetry and traces the identification of working class Catholics with deviant passions in Willa Cather's fiction Finally Trask examines how literary leftists borrowed the antiprostitution rhetoric of Progressive era reformers to protest the ascendancy of consumerism in the 1920s Viewing class as a restless and unstable category Trask contends American modernist writers appropriated sexology's concept of evasive unmoored desire to account for the seismic shift in social relations during the Progressive era and beyond Looking closely at the fraught ideological space between real and perceived class differences Cruising Modernism discloses there a pervasive representation of sexuality as well

A Historical Guide to Henry James John Carlos Rowe, Eric Haralson, 2012-02-16 An excellent primer to the work and milieu of Henry James this collection of essays highlights the historical and cultural issues that influenced the great novelist

Projecting Words, Writing Images John R. Leo, Marek Paryz, 2011-08-08 This compilation of essays by 20 scholars trained in comparative literatures art history critical theory and American cultural studies further explores and expands the spirited and energetic field of visual cultural studies and its cognate or supplemental projects of visual practices and visual literacy Their topics and perspectives engage contemporary re-theorizations of text of word and image while their alignments ruptures slippages and aporias fall across a range of media practices and institutions These include photography and exhibition film television entertainment journalism poetry and literature as visual and spectacular performances and graphic narratives but also their discursive intersections with race and ethnicity their conjugations of gender their tense and constitutive relations within multiple public spheres and post modernities

The Book of Minor Perverts Benjamin Kahan, 2019-02-05 Shortlisted for the Modernist Studies Association Book Prize Statue fondlers wanderlusts sex magicians and nymphomaniacs the story of these forgotten sexualities what Michel Foucault deemed minor perverts has never before been told In The Book of Minor Perverts Benjamin Kahan sets out to chart the proliferation of sexual classification that arose with the advent of nineteenth century sexology The book narrates the shift from Foucault's thousand aberrant sexualities to one homosexuality The focus here is less on the effects of queer identity and more on the lines of causation behind a surprising array of minor perverts who refuse to fit neatly into our familiar sexual frameworks The result stands at the intersection of history queer studies and the medical humanities to offer us a new way of feeling our way into the past

Beautiful Circuits Mark Goble, 2010-11-02 Considering texts by Henry James Gertrude Stein James Weldon Johnson F

Scott Fitzgerald Ralph Ellison Richard Wright James Agee and William Carlos Williams alongside film painting music and popular culture Mark Goble explores the development of American modernism as it was shaped by its response to technology and an attempt to change how literature itself could communicate Goble's original readings reinterpret the aesthetics of modernism in the early twentieth century when new modes of communication made the experience of technology an occasion for profound experimentation and reflection He follows the assimilation of such old media technologies as the telegraph telephone and phonograph and their role in inspiring fantasies of connection which informed a commitment to the materiality of artistic mediums Describing how relationships made possible by technology became more powerfully experienced with technology Goble explores a modernist fetish for media that shows no signs of abating The mediated life puts technology into communication with a series of shifts in how Americans conceive the mechanics and meanings of their connections to one another and therefore to the world and to their own modernity After Queer Studies Tyler Bradway, E. L.

McCallum, 2019-01-10 After Queer Studies maps the literary influences that facilitated queer theory's academic emergence and charts the trajectories that continue to shape its continued evolution as a critical practice It explores the interdisciplinary origins of queer studies and argues for the prominent role that literary studies has played in establishing the concepts methods and questions of contemporary queer theory It shows how queer studies has had an impact on many trending concerns in literary studies such as the affective turn the question of the subject and the significance of social categories like race class and sexual differences Bridging between queer studies legacies and its horizons this collection initiates new discussion on the irreducible changes that queer studies has introduced in the concepts methods and modes of literary interpretation and cultural practices The Literature of Extreme Poverty in the Great Depression Robert Dale

Parker, 2025 The Literature of Extreme Poverty in the Great Depression uncovers a forgotten side of modernism the literature of unemployment and poverty in the 1930s particularly fiction and poetry about people starving on the street or struggling on welfare people who often don't know where they'll find their next meal or whether they'll find someplace to sleep They spend the night on park benches or in filthy flophouses or they trade sex for food and shelter or they starve Time itself changes For the starving poor standing for hours and hours in a breadline the speed of modern culture slows down Parker expands on previous studies of the 1930s by recovering the fiction and poetry of dozens of forgotten writers and reading them together with political cartoons and with underknown writing by such acclaimed or understudied writers as Langston Hughes Tom Kromer Dorothy West and Martha Gellhorn From an age so immersed in despair and suffering that many writers came to doubt the very idea of literary aesthetics this book rescues a vast archive of literary analogues to the famous documentary photographs that burned the Depression into American visual memory It shapes a collective portrait and interpretation of a nearly lost literary history that represents a nation its crisis and its literature of crisis from the bottom up rather than from the top down Queer Environmentality Robert Azzarello, 2016-04-15 Offering a model for meaningful dialogue between queer studies and environmental studies Robert Azzarello's book traces a queer environmental lineage in American Romantic and post Romantic literature Azzarello challenges the notion that reading environmental literature is unsatisfying in terms of aesthetics and proposes an understanding of literary environmentalism that is rich in poetic complexity With the term queer environmentality Azzarello points towards a queer sensibility in the history of environmental literature to balance the dominant narrative that reading environmental literature is tantamount to witnessing a spectacular dramatization of heterosexual teleology Azzarello's study treats four key figures in the American literary tradition Henry David Thoreau Herman Melville Willa Cather and Djuna Barnes Each of these writers problematizes conventional notions of the strange matrix between the human the natural and the sexual They brilliantly demonstrate the ways in which the queer project and the environmental project are always connected or put another way show that questions and politics of human sexuality are always entwined with those associated with the other than human world

Dissensuous Modernism Allyson C. DeMaagd, 2022-02-22 Placing women writers at the center of the sensory and technological experimentation that characterized the modernist movement Dissensuous Modernism shows how women of the era challenged gendered narratives that limited their power and agency and waged dissent through their radical sensuous writing Allyson DeMaagd critiques an overemphasis among modernist writers and generations of researchers on the masculine senses of sight and sound shifting the conversation toward the feminine senses of smell taste and touch These senses long considered lower were explored by writers such as H D Mina Loy Virginia Woolf and Elizabeth Bowen as DeMaagd demonstrates through detailed close readings of their lesser studied novels DeMaagd's analysis shows how these women incorporated technology in their work to reunify the senses or to draw attention to the destructive disunity of the senses highlighting the subversive potential of sensory integration Dissensuous Modernism illuminates how modernist women writers breached the sensory borders society erects between men and women heteronormativity and queerness ability and disability technology and nature and human and nonhuman It elevates diverse embodied experiences and illuminates the pivotal role of women in modernist sensory thought English and American Studies Martin
