Theories and Documents of Contemporary Art Kristine Stiles, Peter Selz, 2012-09-25 An essential text in the field of contemporary art history it has now been updated to represent 30 countries and over 100 new artists The internationalism evident in this revised edition reflects the growing interest in contemporary art throughout the world from the U S and Europe to the Middle East Asia Africa Latin America and Australia      Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley, 2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon Joseph Beuys Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death Bacon's works invite fresh readings of the New Testament's narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys' works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war Gober's immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies      Aftershock

Kieran Cashell, 2009-08-30 Accused by the tabloid press of setting out to shock controversial artworks are vigorously defended by art critics who frequently downplay their disturbing emotional impact This is the first book to subject contemporary art to a rigorous ethical exploration It argues that in favouring conceptual rather than emotional reactions commentators actually fail to engage with the work they promote Scrutinising notorious works by artists including Damien Hirst Jake and Dinos Chapman Richard Billingham Marc Quinn Sally Mann Marcus Harvey Hans Bellmer Paul McCarthy Tierney Gearon and Tracey Emin Aftershock insists on the importance of visceral emotional and ethical responses Far from clouding our judgement Cashell argues shame outrage or revulsion are the very emotions that such works set out to evoke While also questioning the catch all notion of transgression this illuminating and controversial book neither jumps indiscriminately to the defence of shocking artworks nor dismisses them out of hand Contemporary Voices Ann Temkin, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2005 Catalog of an exhibition held Feb 4 Apt 25 2005 From the Supernatural to the Uncanny Zoltán Biedermann, Stephen M. Hart, 2018-01-23 This volume is a collection of thirteen essays built around the question what is the supernatural and how and why has it changed over time It is divided into two complementary sections the first focussing on research on the discourse of the supernatural including the miraculous located in the medieval and early modern eras and the second consisting of a set of test cases involving research on the uncanny often articulated in a post Freudian sense as expressed in modern literature film and art The eclectic and prismatic approach pursued via a variety of test cases of the supernatural in this book gives rise to a clear comparative and diachronic study of the main characteristics of the supernatural Still Life Melissa Milgrom, 2021-03-19 After her curiosity is piqued by a safari gone awry a journalist delves into the curious world of taxidermy and shares her findings It's easy to dismiss taxidermy as a kitschy or morbid sideline the realm of trophy fish and jackalopes or an anachronistic throwback to the dusty diorama Yet theirs is a world of intrepid hunter explorers eccentric naturalists and gifted museum artisans all devoted to the paradoxical pursuit of creating the illusion of life Into this subculture of passionate animal lovers ventures journalist Melissa Milgrom whose journey stretches from the anachronistic family workshop of the last chief taxidermist for the American Museum of Natural History to the studio where an English sculptor granddaughter of a surrealist artist preserves the animals for Damien Hirst's most disturbing artworks She wanders through Mr Potter's Museum of Curiosities in the final days of its existence to watch dealers vie for preserved Victorian oddities and visits the Smithsonian's offsite lab where taxidermists transform zoo skins into vivacious beasts She tags along with a Canadian bear trapper and former Roy Orbison impersonator the three time World Taxidermy Champion as he resurrects an extinct Irish elk using DNA studies and Paleolithic cave art for reference she even ultimately picks up a scalpel and stuffs her own squirrel Transformed from a curious onlooker to an empathetic participant Milgrom takes us deep into the world of taxidermy and reveals its uncanny appeal Hilarious but respectful Washington Post Engrossing New Yorker A delightful debut Milgrom has in Still Life opened up a whole world to
