reintegrated into society Old Tavern Signs Fritz August Gottfried Endell, 2022-06-03 In Old Tavern Signs Fritz August Gottfried Endell delves into the rich tapestry of cultural heritage through the lens of historical tavern signage. This work combines a meticulous examination of various signs with a narrative style that is both engaging and informative. Endell weaves together folklore, craftsmanship, and regional identity, presenting readers with a visual and textual feast that captures the vibrant spirit of communal social spaces in past centuries. The book is as much an art historical survey as it is a cultural commentary, making it a significant contribution to the fields of art history and social anthropology. Fritz August Gottfried Endell was an eminent art historian and cultural critic whose passion for visual culture was evident in his previous works. His extensive travels across Europe, particularly in areas rich in folklore, undoubtedly influenced his fascination with tavern signs. Endell's background in both history and art provides a valuable perspective as he synthesizes diverse influences and academic disciplines, reflecting a deep understanding of the sociocultural factors that shaped these artifacts. Old Tavern Signs is a valuable read for art historians, cultural enthusiasts, and anyone interested in the intersection of history and design. Endell's approachable prose, coupled with thorough research, will transport readers to a time where every tavern sign held stories waiting to be discovered, making this book a delightful addition to any scholarly collection or casual reader's bookshelf.

Catalogue of Works on European Philology and the Minor European Languages Bernard Quaritch, 1878 The Moving Statues of Seventeenth-Century Amsterdam Angela Vanhaelen, 2022-08-05 This book opens a window onto a fascinating and understudied aspect of the visual material intellectual and cultural history of seventeenth-century Amsterdam: the role played by its inns and taverns, specifically the doolhoven. Doolhoven were a type of labyrinth unique to early modern Amsterdam. Offering guest lodgings, these licensed public houses also housed remarkable displays of artwork in their gardens and galleries. The main attractions were inventive displays of moving mechanical figures, automata, and a famed set of waxwork portraits of the rulers of Protestant Europe. Publicized as the most innovative artworks on display in Amsterdam, the doolhoven exhibits presented the mercantile city as a global center of artistic and technological advancement. This evocative tour through the doolhoven pub gardens, where drinking, entertainment, and the acquisition of knowledge mingled in encounters with lively displays of animated artifacts, shows that the exhibits had a forceful and transformative impact on visitors, one that moved them toward Protestant reform. Deeply researched and decidedly original, The Moving Statues of Seventeenth-Century Amsterdam uncovers a wealth of information about these nearly forgotten public pleasure parks, situating them within popular culture, religious controversies, global trade relations, and intellectual debates of the seventeenth century. It will appeal in particular to scholars in art history and early modern studies.
