Creative Time The Book:

Creative Time Anne Pasternak, 2008-09-17 New York City is the undisputed centre of the North American art world and its public art is one of the most evident signs of its cultural wealth For more than 30 years Creative Time has been an avatar of public art in the city working to engage art and the environment artists and the public Sculpture in Gotham Michele H. Bogart, 2018-04-15 Public sculpture is a major draw in today's cities and nowhere is this more the case than in New York In the Big Apple urban art has become synonymous with the municipal brand highlighting the metropolis as vibrant creative tolerant orderly and above all safe Sculpture in Gotham tells the story of how the City of New York came to be committed to public art patronage beginning in the mid 1960s In that era of political turbulence cultural activists and city officials for a time shifted away from traditional monuments joining forces to sponsor ambitious sculptural projects as an instrument for urban revitalization Focusing on specific people agencies and organizations and both temporary and permanent projects from the 1960s forward Michele H Bogart reveals the changing forms and meanings of municipal public art Sculpture in Gotham illustrates how such shifts came about at a time when art theories and styles were morphing markedly and when municipalities were reeling from racial unrest economic decline and countercultural challenges to culture as well as the state While sculptural installations on New York City property took time and were not without controversy Gotham's processes and policies produced notable results providing precedents and lessons for cities the world over A Companion to Public Art Cher Krause Knight, Harriet F. Senie, 2020-03-24 A Companion to Public Art is the only scholarly volume to examine the main issues theories and practices of public art on a comprehensive scale Edited by two distinguished scholars with contributions from art historians critics curators and art administrators as well as artists themselves Includes 19 essays in four sections tradition site audience and critical frameworks Covers important topics in the field including valorizing victims public art in urban landscapes and on university campuses the role of digital technologies jury selection committees and the intersection of public art and mass media Contains artist's philosophy essays which address larger questions about an artist's body of work and the field of public art by Julian Bonder et al Hajoe Moderegger and Franziska Lamprecht John Craig Freeman Antony Gormley Suzanne Lacy Caleb Neelon Tatzu Nishi Greg Sholette and Alan Sonfist Creative Time, Inc Creative Time, Inc, 1979 Doing Public Humanities Susan Smulyan, 2020-07-20 Doing Public Humanities explores the cultural landscape from disruptive events to websites from tours to exhibits from after school arts programs to archives giving readers a wide ranging look at the interdisciplinary practice of public humanities Combining a practitioner's focus on case studies with the scholar's more abstract and theoretical approach this collection of essays is useful for both teaching and appreciating public humanities The contributors are committed to presenting a public humanities practice that encourages social justice and explores the intersectionalities of race class gender and sexualities Centering on the experiences of students with many of the case studies focused on course projects the content will enable them to relate to and better understand this new field of study The text is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate classes in public history historic preservation history of art engaged sociology and public archaeology and anthropology as well as public humanities

Geosonics Joshua Dittrich, 2024-08-08 How do we listen to the earth That is the central question posed in Geosonics Listening Through Earth's Soundscapes Working across sound studies media theory and environmental media studies Joshua Dittrich explores the material and metaphorical geology of the sonic environment In an epoch of climate crisis environment is no longer a neutral background site or simple surrounding environment is immanently implicated in the chains of mediation that make up the material and imaginative infrastructure of our lives The analytical task of Geosonics is to tune into that infrastructure through sound Drawing on influential work in sound studies around the concept of transduction this book explores how listening does not take place in a pre-existing soundscape but rather makes place by etching out a mediated mutually constitutive set of relations between listeners media and environments Living as Form Nato Thompson, 2012 Living as Form grew out of a major exhibition at Creative Time in New York City Like the exhibition the book is a landmark survey of more than 100 projects selected by a 30 person curatorial advisory team each project is documented by a selection of colour images Contemporary Curating and Museum Education Carmen Mörsch, Angeli Sachs, Thomas Sieber, 2016-11-15 In the context of critical museology museums are questioning their social role defining the museum as a site for knowledge exchange and participation in creating links between past and present Museum education has evolved as a practice in its own right questioning expanding and transforming exhibitions and institutions How does museum work change if we conceive of curating and education as an integrated practice This question is addressed by international contributors from different types of museums For anyone interested in the future of museums it offers insights into the diversity of positions and experiences of translating the grand designs of museology into practice International Performance Research Pedagogies Sruti Bala, Milija Gluhovic, Hanna Korsberg, Kati Röttger, 2017-11-07 This book offers a unique and much needed interrogation of the broader questions surrounding international performance research which are pertinent to the present and the future of Theatre and Performance studies Marking the completion of eight years of the Erasmus Mundus MA Programme in International Performance Research MAIPR a programme run jointly by the universities of Warwick UK Amsterdam Netherlands Helsinki Tampere Finland Arts in Belgrade Serbia and Trinity College Dublin Ireland the essays in this volume take stock of the achievements insights and challenges of what international performance research is or ought to be about By reflecting on the discipline of Performance Studies using the MAIPR programme as a case study in point the volume addresses the broader question of the critical link between the discipline of Performance Studies and humanities education in general examining their interactions in the contemporary university in the context of globalisation Afrodiasporic Forms Raquel Kennon, 2022-06-29 Afrodiasporic Forms explores the epistemological possibilities of the Black world paradigm and traces a literary and cultural cartography of the monde noir and its constitutive African diasporas across multiple poetic visual and cultural permutations Examining the transatlantic slave trade and modern racial slavery Raquel Kennon challenges the US centric focus of slavery studies and draws on a transnational eclectic archive of materials from Lusophone Hispanophone and Anglophone sources in the Americas to inspect evolving multitudinous and disparate forms of Afrodiasporic cultural expression Spanning the 1830s to the twenty first century Afrodiasporic Forms traverses national linguistic and disciplinary boundaries as it investigates how cultural products of slavery s afterlife including poetry prose painting television sculpture and song shape understandings of the African diaspora Each chapter uncovers multidirectional pathways for exploring representations of slavery considering works such as a Brazilian telenovela based on Bernardo Guimar es s novel A Escrava Isaura Robert Hayden s poem Middle Passage Kara Walker s sculpture A Subtlety and Juan Francisco Manzano s Autobiografía de un esclavo Kennon s expansive method of comparative reading across the diaspora uses eclectic pairings of canonical and popular textual and artistic sources to stretch beyond disciplinary and national borders promoting expansive diasporic literacies
