spectrum of the situation of women performers from Gerasim Lebedeff's time 1795 who are considered to be the first performers in modern Bengali theatre to today's time. The moot question is whether the role of women as performers evolved down the centuries. Whether this question will lead us to their subjugation to their male counterparts producers and directors has been explored here to give readers an understanding of when where by whom the politics began and by tracing the footprints we have tried to understand if the politics has changed or remains unchanged or metamorphosed with regard to the woman's question in the performance discourse. We have explored in this regard how her body mind and sexuality interacted with and negotiated the phallocentric hierarchy. The essays included are on i Baiji Tawaif culture in eastern and western Bengal ii prostitute fallen women patita beshya performers iii IPTA and the Naxalbari movement iv group and commercial professional theatre of Kolkata v women's position in the theatre of Bangladesh vi Cabaret with an interview with Miss Shefali vii Jatra viii Baul tradition ix Besides there are chapters on English Anglo Indian Jew Nachni performers and the illustrious dancer Amala Shankar and film music dance in general.
