Birth Fathers and Their Adoption Experiences Gary Clapton,2003 Virtually all literature about birth parents of adopted children has focused on mothers In this pioneering study Gary Clapton gives us a fresh perspective he recounts the experiences of thirty birth fathers separated from their children at birth Discussing different notions of fatherhood such as

biological paternity social fatherhood sperm donorship and the father figure this informative book the first on birth fathers in adoption brings new light to issues such as the decision to give up a child for adoption the child's desire to find his or her birth parents and the facilitation of contact in later life Written in an accessible style with insights into adoption and social work practice past and present Birth Fathers and their Adoption Experiences offers a vital new perspective on understanding the causes and consequences of adoption and makes positive suggestions for working with those whom it affects Working with Loss, Death and Bereavement Jeremy Weinstein, 2007-11-15 This book makes a significant contribution to the literature The author is to be commended for the huge amount of work he has put into this volume which deserves to be widely used Professor Bernard Moss Staffordshire University All social workers encounter complex and diverse forms of loss throughout their practice Working with Loss Death and Bereavement helps trainee and practitioners navigate these difficult situations by developing the skills and values necessary for effective and empowering practice Each chapter is grounded in social work theory and is illustrated by practice scenarios exercises suggestions for further study and contemporary cultural examples from novels and films The book explores definitions and assessment of loss psychological aspects of loss and grief skills methods and theories working with the individual families support groups and communities avenues of support for social workers key themes of anti discriminatory practice evidence based practice and ethical awareness This invaluable skills based book meets the training requirements for social workers and will be essential reading for students or practitioners wishing to reflect on and develop their own practice in working with loss death and bereavement Jeremy Weinstein worked as a social worker prior to teaching at London South Bank University where he is now a Visiting Fellow Jeremy is an accredited trainer and gestalt psychotherapist with a small private practice offering therapy supervision and consultation

Community-based Maternity Care Geoffrey Marsh, Mary Renfrew, 1998-10-22 This important book makes the case for placing maternity care in the community It has been written by a multidisciplinary group The first section considers the role and function of the participants in community based maternity care the woman the midwife and the GP The second section discusses four major contemporary issues the radically changing social background the economics of care audit and education of the carers Next the major clinical challenges in maternity care are tackled how to reduce the differences in morbidity and mortality which are associated with differences in age social class and ethnicity the care of disadvantaged groups prematurity and low birth weight and their prevention technology used in childbirth and the fetal origins of adult disease Finally all aspects of the clinical care carried out by GPs and midwives are covered The editors hope that after reading this book midwives GPs and obstetricians should find the theory underpinning their work has been sharply defined and that their work will be more effective and evidence based The editors a GP and a midwife anticipate the resolution of the current tensions between midwife GP and obstetrician and look forward to a responsive effective and sensitive service for mothers and babies in the next millennium Doulas and Intimate Labour: Boundaries, Bodies and Birth Angela N.

Casaneda,2015-12-01 Scholars turn to reproduction for its ability to illuminate the practices involved with negotiating personhood for the unborn the newborn and the already existing family members community members and the nation The scholarship in this volume draws attention to doula work as intimate and relational while highlighting the way boundaries are created maintained challenged and transformed Intimate labour as a theoretical construct provides a way to think about the kind of care doulas offer women across the reproductive spectrum Doulas negotiate boundaries and often blur the divisions between communities and across public and private spheres in their practice of intimate labour This book weaves together three main threads doulas and mothers doulas and their community and finally doulas and institutions The lived experience of doulas illustrates the interlacing relationships among all three of these threads The essays in this collection offer a unique perspective on doulas by bringing together voices that represent the full spectrum of doula work including the viewpoints of birth postpartum abortion community based adoption prison and radical doulas We privilege this broad representation of doula experiences to emphasize the importance of a multi vocal framing of the doula experience As doulas move between worlds and learn to live in liminal spaces they occupy space that allows them to generate new cultural narratives about birthing bodies Men and Maternity

Rosemary Mander,2004-08-02 With men becoming increasingly involved in childbearing as obstetricians and more recently as fathers this book considering the findings of recent research and wider literature argues that the beneficial contribution of men has been taken for granted Place and Professional Practice

Gavin J. Andrews,Emma Rowland,Elizabeth Peter,2021-01-04 This book presents the first single comprehensive analysis of the scope of geographical realities and relevance in health care work Conceptually the book conveys how space place and geographical ideas matter to clinical practice from the historical beginnings of professional roles and responsibilities in medicine to the present day In 8 chapters the book covers healthcare work across a range of job types including physician nurse and multiple technical and therapeutic roles in multiple specialties and across a range of scales focusing on global issues and trends national and regional particularities urban and rural issues institutional environments and various community settings This book is intended for students teachers and researchers in geography social science and various health sciences Chapter 1 examines how geographical ideas have been central to practitioners thinking and practice over time Chapter 2 reviews the scope of contemporary geographical study of health care work Chapter 3 presents an empirical case study of the geographies in hospital based ward work Chapter 4 presents an empirical case study of the geographies in ambulance rapid response work Chapter 5 presents a case study of the geographies associated with a high profile case of criminality and neglect in practice Chapter 6 considers concepts and the geographies in person centred care Chapter 7 considers concepts and the geographies in skills attainment
