De Stijl and Dutch Modernism Michael White, 2003-09-20 The name De Stijl title of a magazine founded in the Netherlands in 1917 is now used to identify the abstract art and functional architecture of its major contributors Mondrian Van Doesburg Van der Leek Oud Wils and Rietveld De Stijl achieved international acclaim by the end of the 1920s and its paintings buildings and furniture made fundamental contributions to the modern movement This book is the first to emphasize the local context of De Stijl and explore its relationship to the distinctive character of Dutch modernism It examines how the debates concerning abstraction in painting and spatiality in architecture were intimately connected to contemporary developments in the fields of urban planning advertising interior design and exhibition design The book describes the interaction between the world of mass culture and the fine arts

The Value of Housing Design and Layout Great Britain. Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment, 2003 National opinion surveys consistently show that a significant section of the house buying public would never consider purchasing a new house preferring more established neighbourhoods and building stock House builders must therefore look to offer more attractive designs Innovative thinking integration with existing communities and investment in quality are the key elements that will persuade people that they want to live in modern housing

Charleston and Monk's House Nuala Hancock, 2012-06-27 The interwoven biographies of Virginia Woolf and Vanessa Bell and the houses they lived in What can we learn from a commemorative house What biographical narratives emerge as we travel through the spaces of another's home This new study unveils the revelatory potential of the house museum to inform and enrich our understanding of the lived past of its former inhabitants It focuses on the emotionally textured interiors of Charleston and

Monk's House the literary artistic house museums of Virginia Woolf and Vanessa Bell seeking out traces of their shared biography Fresh perspectives unfold on Woolf's and Bell's sisterhood and their continuous artistic exchange as we shadow their daily lives through the richly painted rooms and atmospheric gardens of their former Sussex homes Discover these celebrated artists in a different light animated moving handling the tools of their related arts and brought vividly to life through the tangible fabric of their past living Housing Architecture and Design From the Past to the Future Deniz Demirarslan, Selma Kayhan Tunali, 2021-05-15 Housing Architecture and Design From the Past to the Future The Archaeology of Houses and Households in the Native Southeast Benjamin A. Steere, 2017-04-11 This book explores changes in houses and households in the southeastern United States from the Woodland to the Historic Indian Period ca 200 B C to A D 1800 Most studies of domestic architecture in the Southeast have been conducted at the single site scale As a result broader spatial and temporal patterns of variation in houses and households are not well understood To address this problem Steere constructed a database that catalogues the architectural features of 1 258 structures from 65 sites in the Southern Appalachian region and surrounding areas Significant trends identified by this comparative study include changes in the size and spacing of houses changes in architectural investment and a secular trend toward the increasing segmentation of houses Using a theoretical framework developed from household archaeology and anthropology Steere argues that certain aspects of this architectural variation can be explained by changes in household economics and household composition symbolic behavior status differentiation and settlement patterning More generally he proposes that large scale patterns of diachronic and synchronic variation in domestic architecture are best explained by changes in social organization Provided by publisher The Domestic Space Reader Kathy Mezei, Chiara Briganti, 2012-01-01 Tune in to HGTV visit your local bookstore's magazine section or flip to the Homes section of your weekend newspaper and it becomes clear domestic spaces play an immense role in our cultural consciousness The Domestic Space Reader addresses our collective fascination with houses and homes by providing the first comprehensive survey of the concept across time cultures and disciplines This pioneering anthology which is ideal for students and general readers features writing by key scholars thinkers and writers including Gaston Bachelard Mary Douglas Le Corbusier Homi Bhabha Henri Lefebvre Mrs Beeton Ma Thanegi Diana Fuss Beatriz Colomina and Edith Wharton Among the many engaging topics explored are the impact of domestic technologies on family life the relationship between religion and the home nomadic peoples and housing domestic spaces in art and literature and the history of the bedroom the kitchen and the bathroom The Domestic Space Reader demonstrates how discussions of domestic spaces can help us better understand our inner lives and challenge our perceptions of life in particular times and places Designing the British Post-War Home Fiona Fisher, 2015-04-10 In Designing the British Post War Home Fiona Fisher explores the development of modern domestic architecture in Britain through a detailed study of the work of the successful Surrey based architectural practice of Kenneth Wood Wood's firm is representative of a geographically distinct category of post war architectural and design practice that of the small private practice that flourished in Britain's expanding suburbs after the removal of wartime building restrictions. Such firms which played an important role in the development of British domestic design are currently under represented within architectural histories of the period. The private house represents an important site in which new spatial material and aesthetic parameters for modern living were defined after the Second World War. Within a British context the architect designed private house remained an important vehicle for the investigation of architectural ideas by second generation modernist architects and designers. Through a series of case study houses designed by Wood's firm the book reconsiders the progress of modern domestic architecture in Britain and demonstrates the ways in which architectural discourse and practice intersected with the experience, performance and representation of domestic modernity in post war Britain.
