China From The 1911 Revolution To Liberation:

China from the 1911 Revolution to Liberation Jean Chesneaux, Françoise Le Barbier, Marie-Claire Bergère, 1977 China from the 1911 Revolution to Liberation Marie-Claire Bergère, Jean Chesneaux, Françoise Le Barbier, 1977 Modernization and Revolution in China June Grasso, Jay P. Corrin, Michael Kort, 2015-02-12 Extensively revised and updated this popular text conveys the drama of China's struggle to modernize against the backdrop of a proud and difficult history. Spanning the years from China's humiliating defeat in the Opium Wars to its triumphant hosting of the 2008 summer Olympics, the authors narrate the major developments of that journey: the breakdown of imperial China in the face of Japanese and Western encroachments; Sun Yatsen and the founding of the Chinese Republic; the early struggles between the ideologies and armies of Chiang Kai-shek and Mao Zedong; China's bitter and costly war with Japan; the final shootout that sent Chiang to Taiwan and Mao to Beijing; the turbulent first decades of the People's Republic and the dramatic shift to a globalizing economic strategy. This edition features all new analysis of issues facing China's leaders today, including environmental challenges, rural economic developments, corruption, the current economic climate, China's relations with its neighbors and the United States, the latest Tibet crisis, and the reelection of Hu Jintao. The authors have also incorporated some of the latest scholarship on Chinese historical events, making this the best and most up-to-date brief text on modern China currently available. Civil War in China Suzanne Pepper, 1999-07-22 Many books have tried to analyze the reasons for the Chinese communist success in China's 1945-1949 civil war, but Suzanne Pepper's seminal work was the first and remains the only comprehensive analysis of how the ruling Nationalists lost that war—not just militarily but by alienating the civilian population through corruption and incompetence. Now available in a new edition, this authoritative investigation of Kuomintang failure and communist success explores the new research and archival resources available for assessing this pivotal period in contemporary Chinese history. Even more relevant today given the contemporary debates in Hong Kong and Taiwan over the terms of reunification with a communist-led national government in Beijing, this book is essential reading for anyone seeking a nuanced understanding of twentieth-century Chinese politics. Modernization of the Chinese PLA: From Massed Militia to Force Projection Lt Gen JS Bajwa, The National Question Berch Berberoglu, 2009 This volume examines the volatile nature and complex dynamics of national movements and ethnic conflict around the world. A Newspaper for China? Barbara Mittler, 2020-03-23 In 1872, in the treaty port of Shanghai, British merchant Ernest Major founded one of the longest-lived and most successful of modern Chinese language newspapers, the Shenbao. His publication quickly became a leading newspaper in China and won praise as a department store of news, a forum for intellectual discussion and moral challenge, and an independent mouthpiece of the public voice. Located in the International Settlement of Shanghai, it was free of government regulation. Paradoxically, in a country where the government monopolized the public sphere, it became one of the world's most independent newspapers. As a private venture, the Shenbao was free of the ideologies that constrained missionary papers published in China during the nineteenth century But it also lacked the subsidies that allowed these papers to survive without a large readership As a purely commercial venture the foreign managed Shenbao depended on the acceptance of educated Chinese who would write for it read it and buy it This book sets out to analyze how the managers of the Shenbao made their alien product acceptable to Chinese readers and how foreign style newspapers became alternative modes of communication acknowledged as a powerful part of the Chinese public sphere within a few years In short it describes how the foreign Shenbao became a newspaper for China China Michael Dillon,2021-07-15 In this complete guide to modern China Michael Dillon takes students through its social political and economic changes from the Qing Empire through the civil war and the Communist state to its incarnation as a hybrid capitalist superpower Key features of the new edition include A brand new chapter on the Xi Jinping premiership Coverage of the recent developments in Hong Kong Unique analysis of Tibet and Xinjiang Teaching aides including biographies of leading figures timelines and a glossary Clearly and compellingly written this textbook is essential for any student of the history or politics of modern China A History of the World from the 20th to the 21st Century John Ashley Soames Grenville,2005 Provides a comprehensive survey of the key events and personalities of this period China, 1895-1912 State-Sponsored Reforms and China's Late-Qing Revolution Zhongguo Jindai Shi,Douglas R. Reynolds,2017-07-05 Offering recent scholarship in Chinese historiography this text focuses on radical even revolutionary changes of the period 1895 1912 The book investigates intellectual and institutional changes associated with the government s Xinzheng or New Systems reforms
