

The background of the book cover is an abstract geometric pattern composed of numerous triangles in various shades of blue, ranging from light sky blue to deep navy blue. The triangles are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and movement, with some pointing upwards and others downwards, forming a complex tessellation.

Peak Performance for Deans and Chairs Susan Stavert Roper, Terrence E. Deal, 2010-01-16 Deans and chairs like other leaders everywhere often rely on narrow views of their organizations that capture only part of the real picture As a result they miss out on a rich array of options available to them Peak Performance for Deans and Chairs molds deans and chairs into better leaders by teaching them a new way of thinking about their universities colleges and departments Reframing is the ability to examine a situation through multiple lenses which not only enhances understanding of challenges leaders face but also suggests strategies for moving forward Entertaining and realistic scenarios show deans and chairs grappling with common problems as they attempt to implement change manage the faculty deal with budget cuts and win over the higher ups Some leaders are successful others fail This book analyzes the behavior of chairs and deans through the political structural human resources and symbolic frames Lessons learned from the negative as well as the positive scenarios are highlighted enabling deans and chairs to easily adapt them to their own situations The book is the result of a combined effort by a veteran university administrator with many years in the roles of dean and chair and by an internationally known expert on leadership Together they have produced a rare volume that is as strong in its practical application as it is in its theoretical foundation The fact that it is also engaging and a fast read should put it on the top of deans and chairs must read lists
