Cadenza II Realm Of Secrets:

Jacobs' Orchestra Monthly ,1923 Historical Musicology Stephen A. Crist,Roberta Montemorra Marvin,2004 How do we know what notes a composer intended in a given piece how those notes should be played and sung the nature of musical life in Bach's Leipzig Schubert's Vienna how music related to literature and other arts and social currents in different times and places what attitudes musicians and music lovers had toward the music that they heard and made We know all this from musical manuscripts and prints opera libretti composers letters reviews in newspapers and magazines archival data contemporary pedagogical writings essays on aesthetics and much else Some of these categories of sources are the bedrock of music history and musicology Others have begun to be examined only in recent years Furthermore musicologists including biographers of famous composers now explore these various kinds of sources in a variety of ways some of them richly traditional and others exciting and novel These seventeen essays all newly written use a wide array of source materials to probe issues pertaining to a cross section of musical works and musical life from the sixteenth through the twentieth centuries The resulting pluralistic profile of current musicology will prove welcome to anyone fascinated by the problems of reconstructing reimagining sometimes the evanescent musical art of the past and pondering its implications for musical life today and in the future Roberta Montemorra Marvin is Director of Research and Development for International Programs University of Iowa Stephen A Crist is Associate Professor and Chair of the Music Department at Emory University
