Competition Policy Theory And Practice:

Competition Policy Massimo Motta, 2004-01-12 This is the first book to provide a systematic treatment of the economics of antitrust or competition policy in a global context It draws on the literature of industrial organisation and on original analyses to deal with such important issues as cartels joint ventures mergers vertical contracts predatory pricing exclusionary practices and price discrimination and to formulate policy implications on these issues The interaction between theory and practice is one of the main features of the book which contains frequent references to competition policy cases and a few fully developed case studies The treatment is written to appeal to practitioners and students to lawyers and economists It is not only a textbook in economics for first year graduate or advanced undergraduate courses but also a book for all those who wish to understand competition issues in a clear and rigorous way Exercises and some solved problems are provided

Limits of Competition Policy A. E. Rodriguez, Ashok Menon, 2010-01-01 What the authors offer is a thoroughgoing analysis clearly demonstrating that whatever economic path developing countries pursue imposing Western style antitrust regimes will engender uncertainty chill economic behaviour and foster an unhealthy climate for business They employ the influential error cost methodology to appraise the performance of competition policy and to show how such a policy creates irresolvable tensions in fragile economies with weak institutions economies characterized by informal rules of business practice long standing symbiotic business state relationships and unpredictable state action They mount a powerful critique of the arguments of neo institutionalists who fail to recognize the vulnerable nature of emerging market economies and competition advocates who presume to stand ready and vigilant to enforce competition policy on state entities A Principled

Approach to Abuse of Dominance in European Competition Law Liza Lovdahl Gormsen, 2010-03-04 Three questions surround the interpretation and application of Article 82 of the EC Treaty What is its underlying purpose Is it necessary to demonstrate actual or likely anticompetitive effects on the market place when applying Article 82 And how can dominant undertakings defend themselves against a finding of abuse Instead of the usual discussion of objectives Liza Lovdahl Gormsen questions whether the Commission's chosen objective of consumer welfare is legitimate While many Community lawyers would readily accept and indeed welcome the objective of consumer welfare this is not supported by case law The Community Courts do not always favour consumer welfare at the expense of economic freedom This is important for dominant undertakings ability to advance efficiencies and for understanding why the Chicago and post Chicago School arguments cannot be injected into Article 82 EC Electronic Communications and Competition Law Mira Burri

Nenova, 2007 Operations Research Proceedings 2010 Bo Hu, Karl Morasch, Stefan Pickl, Markus Siegle, 2011-06-24 This book contains selected papers from the symposium Operations Research 2010 which was held from September 1-3 2010 at the Universität der Bundeswehr München Germany The international conference which also serves as the annual meeting of the German Operations Research Society GOR attracted more than 600 participants from more than thirty countries The general theme Mastering Complexity focusses on a natural component of the globalization process Financial markets traffic systems network topologies and last but not least energy resource management all contain complex behaviour and economic interdependencies which necessitate a scientific solution Operations Research is one of the key instruments to model simulate and analyze such systems In the process of developing optimal solutions suitable heuristics and efficient procedures are some of the challenges which are discussed in this volume
