Kalyvas,2019-03-14 The Oxford Handbook of Terrorism systematically integrates the substantial body of scholarship on terrorism and counterterrorism before and after 9 11 In doing so it introduces scholars and practitioners to state of the art approaches methods and issues in studying and teaching these vital phenomena This Handbook goes further than most existing collections by giving structure and direction to the fast growing but somewhat disjointed field of terrorism studies The volume locates terrorism within the wider spectrum of political violence instead of engaging in the widespread tendency towards treating terrorism as an exceptional act Moreover the volume makes a case for studying terrorism within its socio historical context Finally the volume addresses the critique that the study of terrorism suffers from lack of theory by reviewing and extending the theoretical insights contributed by several fields including political science political economy history sociology anthropology criminology law geography and psychology In doing so the volume showcases the analytical advancements and reflects on the challenges that remain since the emergence of the field in the early 1970s Crusader Warfare David Nicolle,2007 The Italian Cotton Industry in the Later Middle Ages, 1100-1600 Maureen Fennell Mazzaoui,1981-07-09 This book traces the dynamic advances in textile technology and changes in the structure of demand that accompanied the rise in the late Middle Ages of an Italian industry geared to mass production of cotton fabrics The Italian manufacture based on borrowed techniques and imitations of Islamic cloth was the earliest large scale cotton industry in western Europe It thus marked a pivotal stage in the transmission of the knowledge and use of this textile fibre from the Mediterranean basin to northern Europe The success of the Italians in creating new markets for a wide variety of products that included pure cotton as well as mixed fabrics combining cotton with linen hemp wool and silk permanently altered the patterns of taste and consumption in European society Cotton in various stages of proceeding was at the heart of a complex network of communications that linked the north Italian towns to the source of raw materials and to international markets for finished goods In the developing urban economy of northern Italy cotton played a role comparable in magnitude to that of wool and shared with the latter certain basic features of early capitalistic organization The Horns of Ḥaṭṭīn Society for the Study of the Crusades and the Latin East. Conference,1992 The Battle of the Horns of Hattin 4th July 1187 at which Saladin's armies triumphed over those of the Crusaders entailed the downfall of the Frankish Kingdom of Jerusalem This collection of papers results from a conference held in commemoration of the eighth centennial of this crucial battle Eight of the papers deal with the battle itself or its immediate aftermath eight others examine ideological social and military aspects of crusading and a further eight discuss the history of the Frankish Kingdom and its art and architecture The volume concludes with a transcript of a 1984 symposium on
