Busey, 2017-01-25 This reference book provides information on 24 000 Confederate soldiers killed wounded captured or missing at the Battle of Gettysburg Casualties are listed by state and unit in many cases with specifics regarding wounds circumstances of casualty military service genealogy and physical descriptions Detailed casualty statistics are given in tables for each company battalion and regiment along with brief organizational information for many units Appendices cover Confederate and Union hospitals that treated Southern wounded and Federal prisons where captured Confederates were interned after the battle Original burial locations are provided for many Confederate dead along with a record of disinterments in 1871 and burial locations in three of the larger cemeteries where remains were reinterred A complete name index is included Claiming Freedom Karen Cook Bell, 2018-02-22 An exploration of the political and social experiences of African Americans in transition from enslaved to citizen Claiming Freedom is a noteworthy and dynamic analysis of the transition African Americans experienced as they emerged from Civil War slavery struggled through emancipation and then forged on to become landowners during the Reconstruction and post Reconstruction period in the Georgia lowcountry Karen Cook Bell's work is a bold study of the political and social strife of these individuals as they strived for and claimed freedom during the nineteenth century Bell

begins by examining the meaning of freedom through the delineation of acts of self emancipation prior to the Civil War Consistent with the autonomy that they experienced as slaves the emancipated African Americans from the rice region understood citizenship and rights in economic terms and sought them not simply as individuals for the sake of individualism but as a community for the sake of a shared destiny Bell also examines the role of women and gender issues topics she believes are understudied but essential to understanding all facets of the emancipation experience It is well established that women were intricately involved in rice production a culture steeped in African traditions but the influence that culture had on their autonomy within the community has yet to be determined A former archivist at the National Archives and Records Administration Bell has wielded her expertise in correlating federal state and local records to expand the story of the all black town of 1898 Burroughs Georgia into one that holds true for all the American South By humanizing the African American experience Bell demonstrates how men and women leveraged their community networks with resources that enabled them to purchase land and establish a social political and economic foundation in the rural and urban post war era

Engineering and Contracting ,1920 Legal Executions in Georgia Daniel Allen Hearn,2015-12-22 In the state of Georgia 1025 men and women are known to have been hanged or electrocuted for capital crimes in the century after the Civil War Based on more than twenty years of investigative research this chronological record of these legal executions was pieced together from diverse sources in and outside of the state with many details never before made public The author documents the facts as they occurred without delving into the politics of capital punishment Engineering & Contracting ,1920
