The Chav Family Robinson Paul Richard Scott, 2017-12-04 A gritty occasionally raunchy darkly disturbing satire set in the green and leafy suburbs of the City of Sheffield and the Wybourn council housing estate Freddie is the bigoted misogynistic patriarch of the Robinson clan and is twice married twice divorced He has been unemployed for almost thirty years and is still claiming incapacity benefits but the winds of change are blowing through the Department of Work and Pensions and the council estate too Over the course of one weekend in April skeletons are dragged from closed cupboards dark secrets unearthed and this dysfunctional family gradually falls apart
